

Lust & Chastity

The defect he calls the root of all the others, and the virtue that stands where it stood — which in his hands is not abstinence at all

410 PASSAGES · 36 BOOKS · 9 SECTIONS · 69 PRACTICES · 30 LECTURES · 38 SHARED

SAMAEL AUN WEOR · IN HIS OWN WORDS

Every word here is his. Nothing has been paraphrased, joined or improved. Each passage was cut out of the book it belongs to by reference, and each carries that book and the paragraph it came from, so anything on this page can be found again in the source.

He puts this defect under all the others. "Lust is the capital sin, the original sin, and the root of all the defects… it is the worst obstacle to the dissolution of the ego, and none of us present can say he has never had it." More of this work is chastity than vice, because there is more of it in him: he writes far more about the cure than about the disease.

Chastity in his hands is not abstinence, and he is as hard on the people who hate sex as on the ones who abuse it. Both are in the abyss and he gives each half of it a name — Lilith, who hates it, and Nahemah, who abuses it. The mystical old woman who looked at sex with repugnance and thought herself chaste is in this work beside the fornicator, and he says her Satan is the stronger of the two.

The most useful thing in it is the mechanism, and it comes from the lectures. 79 of these passages are from The Fifth Gospel — taken down from the tape — and what they add is not that lust is bad but how a look becomes an "I": it runs in the three brains at once, showing itself as love in the heart, as images in the head, and as what it actually is only in the sexual centre. That is also the test he gives for telling one from the other.

And he tells it against himself. A long run of passages is his own account of the years when he failed every trial of chastity — absolute in the physical world, defeated the moment he left the body — and of everything he tried that did not work: abstinence until he grew "skinny and horrible", flagellation, Krishnamurti's comprehension, his own psychological judo. "A broom wearing a skirt was enough to make me go after it." Nothing worked until the aggregate itself was destroyed.

And it prints what chastity IS, not only what it is not. His word for it is transmute, and he means it exactly: the same force, turned. "The refrained desire will transmute the semen into light and fire… the same energy that produces sexual pleasure produces ecstasy when it is transmuted." A long run of passages is that, and another is what he gives to a reader who has no spouse — the rune, the breath, the letter S, and music, sculpture and long walks. That half was missing from this work's first edition and was put in by the editor's ruling the same day.

What is not here is the procedure. The Arcanum A.Z.F. itself — the posture, the hours, the mantras of the act, the prohibition of the spasm, the building of the solar bodies — belongs to Alchemy, which is already built. What this work keeps of it is the rule about misuse: white, black and grey tantrism, and the key he gives for unmasking a black magician.

How this edition is arranged. By where lust works: in each of the five centres of his psychology — intellectual, emotional, motor, instinctive and sexual — and in the will and in the word, with what lust is before them and what is born in its place after — the balm for all of it, set apart at the end so it is not missed. The grouping is ours, made on 18 September 2026 at the editor's request; each section opens with one line of his, and every passage keeps the number it has always had, so the numbers no longer run in order down the page.

THE MAP

Where lust works

He teaches that every defect lives in the five centres of the machine, and that the work on it is done by the will.

Each of these centres has an inferior part and a superior part, and he works with both.

What lust is

60 PASSAGES

What lust is

"The "I" of lust is capital and one works on it during our entire life, because there lies the original sin, the root of all the defects."

THE FIFTH GOSPEL

Master: Well, that is the capital sin, you know it well. The "I" of lust is capital and one works on it during our entire life, because there lies the original sin, the root of all the defects. But one always has to work on it in association with some others. That one works on anger, but lust too. That envy emerges, but lust continues. That pride emerges, but lust continues. That is capital.

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · DIDACTICS FOR BUDDHIST ANNIHILATION · Conference at the end of the Missionary Course – Guadalajara, Jalisco. Mexico – From June 15 to August 30. 1976

And what is the worst obstacle that exists for the dissolution of the Ego? What would be the worst inappropriateness? Lust? Yes! It is a terrible word, but who does not have it? Who among those present here could say that he has never had lust? How difficult it is to uproot it from oneself!

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · WORK TASTE AND LIFE TASTE · Third Chamber – Mexico City – 1976

You must devote yourselves to working intensely on yourselves, you must comprehend the process of lust, which is the worst enemy of the elimination of the Ego, the worst enemy of dissolution. Who does not have it? Who has not had it? However, one has to reduce it to ashes.

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · WORK TASTE AND LIFE TASTE · Third Chamber – Mexico City – 1976

Answer: Friends, lust is the root of the ego, of the "I" of the myself, of the oneself; this invites us to comprehend that lechery, fornication unquestionably exists in each of the nine natural infradimensions beneath the geologic cortex of our world.

YES, THERE IS A HELL, A DEVIL AND KARMA, 1973

It is good to know that the most difficult of these demons to overcome is the lust. This is the principal defect which is represented in Arcanum 15 of the Tarot by sexual passion or lust.

TAROT AND KABALAH, 1978

If we want to dissolve the "I" we have to begin by destroying the lust. If the fish of the sea are deprived of water, they die. If we take the Luciferic Fire away from our "I's", these I's die. We have to put an end to the nutrition from which they live, The Atomic Infernos of Man are a reality. Wars are won in the battle field, we have to overcome the Red Demons. Arcanum 15 signifies the work with the demon by means of the Phallus-Osiris and the Uterus-Isis, of which Satan or Set has taken control. The Phallus of the Gods is of pure Gold. It is necessary to eradicate all of that which has the taste of animal passion.

Lust is the origin of the sinful "I". The ego, Satan, is subject to the Law of Eternal Return of all things. It returns to new wombs in order to satisfy desires. In each one of its lives the "I" repeats the same dramas, the same errors. The "I" complicates itself through time, each time becoming more and more perverse.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

In ancient Egypt the doctrine of the two Trees was studied in depth. The fatal shadow of the Tree of Life is the "I". The fatal shadow of the Tree of Knowledge is fornication. People take the shadows to be reality.

He who puts an end to the action of the "I", realises the Being in himself. He who puts an end to fornication becomes a Christ.

38. Is it perhaps a new thing to teach human beings how to ejaculate the semen? 39. In which epoch did the human being become converted into an Angel by fornication? 40. Human evolution has failed, precisely because of the seminal ejaculation (orgasm). Now what?

34. Humanity has been fornicating for more than eighteen million years and if the way of fornication was the positive way, then humanity would not have hunger or there would be no wars, and all human beings would now be Angels.

We have been told in an emphatic manner that the original sin is fornication and this is the foundation of the involuting waves in the infernal worlds.

The three most dangerous crimes are anger, greed, and lust. Anger is the violent outcome of frustrated desire. Greed is desire of accumulating. Lust is sexual desire.

Endocrinology & Criminology, 1957

Lucifer covers his head with a red hood like the Bons and the Dugpas of Oriental Tibet. The lustful forces of the Lucifers awoke animal passion in man. Men and women then began to ejaculate their semen. Due to this reason, the tribes of Lemuria were expelled from the temples.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

The Tree of Life is represented in our physical body by the spinal column. The Tree of Knowledge is represented by the sexual organs. Both trees of Eden even share their roots. God placed Cherubims and a flaming sword to guard the way of the Tree of Life. If man had been able to eat of the delicious fruits of the Tree of Life, we would now have fornicating Gods. That would have been the curse of curses, the most terrible sacrilege, the impossible.

Whosoever spills the semen (reaching the orgasm) is a fornicator, even if they are officially married.

The Aquarian Message, 1960

He who lies sins against the Father who is Truth, and he who hates, sins against the Son who is Love, and he who fornicates sins against the Holy Spirit who is Chastity.

Nevertheless we should not be fanatics. Whoever is incapable of taking a glass in hospitality is as weak as he who does not know how to control his drinking, and becomes drunk. Fornication is another thing. This is unpardonable. All those who ejaculate the seminal fluid are fornicator them, for the fornicators, is the abyss and the second death. Man can be in everything, but should not be victim of anything. He should be king and not slave. He who partook of a drink did not commit a crime, but he who was a slave and victim of drink; he has committed a crime. The true Master is king of the Heavens, the Earth and the Infernos. The weak are not kings. The weak are slaves.

There are sects where people end up speaking in tongues; the fanatics believe that the Holy Spirit has already entered them. Those are poor victims of demonic entities that possess them. In order to really receive the Holy Spirit, one needs to be pure and chaste, because the one who fornicates, sins against the Holy Spirit.

Second Truth: Pain is the child of fornication, and whosoever spills the semen (reaches the orgasm) is a fornicator. This is a tremendous Truth!

When we analyze any "I" of lust, we come to clearly see for ourselves that it processes in each one of the three brains in a different way: in the purely emotional brain it would express itself as love; in the purely motor-instinctive-sexual brain, through eroticism; in the exclusively intellectual brain, as plans, projects related to love or to the being one loves or believes to love; yet, there you have it: they are all but phenomena of the same "I", which is called lust.

The Fifth Gospel · Work Taste and Life Taste · Third Chamber – Mexico City – 1976

But see how different it manifests in the intellectual brain, what other form it assumes in the heart, and finally what its modus operandi is in the motor-instinctive-sexual center. I repeat: in the motor-instinctive-sexual center, like animal passion; in the heart lust assumes another form, we could call it love; and in the intellect it assumes another form: as projects related to that love, as memories of that love. And every "I" has its three brains: the intellectual, the emotional and the motor-instinctive-sexual. Each "I" is a person with its three brains; that is obvious.

The Fifth Gospel · Work Taste and Life Taste · Third Chamber – Mexico City – 1976

If one pays some attention, one can discover how any "I", an "I" of lust, can manifest itself in the heart as love, sentiment; in the head as more or less morbid or ideal images; but in sex such an "I" is discovered, it is because it manifests with its vibration. Then it tells us that we really are not in love, but are impassioned, which is completely different. Animal passion is something disgusting and moreover, dirty.

The Fifth Gospel · The Problem of Psychological Multiplicity

He who puts an end to fornication becomes a Christ.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

Disciple: Is there a special organ in some part of our organism for the impression to be transformed into an "I"? For example, one observes a woman and this impression transforms into a new "I" of lust; is this transformation processed in a part of our organism?

The Fifth Gospel · Intelligent Assimilation of Impressions

Let's assume that an individual sees a provocative woman and he does not transform his impressions. The result will be that those, naturally of a lustful type, originate in him the desire to possess her. Such desire becomes the mechanical result of the impression received, and this desire comes to crystallize, to take a form in our psyche; it becomes one more "aggregate", that is, an inhuman element, a new "I" of a lustful type that comes to aggregate to the existing sum of inhuman elements that in their totality constitute the Ego, the Myself, the Oneself.

The Fifth Gospel · Psychological Protection Against Impressions · Lecture given to the brothers of Colombia – Mexico City – 1974

Some person X, for example, who in a past existence was an adulterer, who left his wife for another lady, it is clear that, upon being reborn, he brings in his psyche the "I" of adultery, the same one that committed the crime. This "I" will not be able to express itself in the first years of childhood. Impossible!

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactics for Buddhist Annihilation ·Conference at the end of the Missionary Course – Guadalajara, Jalisco. Mexico – From June 15 to August 30. 1976

If the event took place at the age of thirty, for example, undoubtedly the "I" of that adultery will wait in the depths of the psyche, within the terrain of what is infra-human, in the subjective spheres, for the same age to arrive, the famous thirty years. When that age will come, that "I" will emerge from the bottom with great force: it will take hold of the intellect and of the emotional center and of the motor-instinctive-sexual center of the machine to go look for the lady of its dreams.

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactics for Buddhist Annihilation ·Conference at the end of the Missionary Course – Guadalajara, Jalisco. Mexico – From June 15 to August 30. 1976

If a person is tremendously lustful and his life is processed by reason of lust, if he is full of frightful emotions and sees in each person of the opposite sex a sexual opportunity, what would we say about this person? If a glance of the opposite sex stirs them up and this is sufficient to be lustful all the time, what could we think? Obviously, he is a negative person, that person, of course infects other people.

The Fifth Gospel ·Secret Repercussions of the Rings of Alcyone

And I have to tell you, my dear brothers, that for each particular characteristic trait there is always a well-defined event, a well-defined circumstance. Is a man lustful? Observe then his life, and there will always be circumstances of lust in his life accompanied by given problems. Is another one a drunkard? Is that his characteristic trait? Observe his life. Is that person greedy? Well, that is his characteristic trait, and around him there will be prisons, there will be economic problems, lawyers, fights, etc. For every particular psychological trait there is always a circumstance or a series of well-defined circumstances that repeat always and always and always.

There are seven primary unities; within these seven, there are seven secondary subconscious unities; within these there exist seven tertiary independent unities. In all this, there exist processes of mutual relation, mutual influence, etc. This is the reason for the didactic in cosmic trials: if an initiate comes out victorious in a certain test of lust in the physical world, he can fail the same test in the secondary or tertiary subconscious unity. An initiate can be victorious in tests of lust in forty-eight subconscious regions and fail in the forty-ninth region.

The Buddha's Necklace, 1967

The subconscious entities, the "I's" which constitute the ego, are real and independent demons who have stolen part of our consciousness and do everything contrary to what we want. If, in the physical world, we decide not to fornicate, then in the other subconscious regions (secondary, tertiary, quaternary), these entities do the exact opposite they fornicate, even when, as initiates, we have arrived at complete chastity in the physical world.

About adultery: it is disgusting! It is really horrible! But what is it that one must understand by adultery? There is not only sexual adultery, there is another kind of adultery. There are people who do not adulterate sexually, but do adulterate doctrines; there are people who adulterate milk: they add water to it to damage the stomachs of children; there are people who adulterate the fruits of the earth: all those who perform plant grafting are adulterers, they are adulterating the fruits of the earth, etc.

THE INTELLECTUAL CENTRE

In the intellectual centre

In the intellectual centre

"Not only does one fornicate physically; there is also fornication in the mental and astral worlds."

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

5. It is impossible to separate the mind from sexuality. The mind and sexuality are intimately related. If our disciples want to convert the material-mind into Christ-mind, then they must fill their chalice (brain) with the sacred wine of the light (semen). 6. It is impossible to christify the mind while we are fornicating.

Igneous Rose, 1954

As for lust, I already said that different forms of lust have reached us in the form of impressions, that is, erotic images appeared in our mind whose reaction was lust. As we do not transform those lustful waves, those lustful vibrations, those impressions, that lustful feeling, that notwell-understood unhealthy eroticism –because I already said that well-understood eroticism is healthy–, naturally, the result was not long in coming: it was completely mechanical, new "I's" were born within our psyche, of a morbid type, of course.

The Fifth Gospel ·Psychological Protection Against Impressions ·Lecture given to the brothers of Colombia – Mexico City – 1974

Not only does one fornicate physically; there is also fornication in the mental and astral worlds. Those who engage in lustful conversations, those who read pornographic magazines, those who attend cinemas where they show passionate erotic films, waste enormous reserves of sexual energy. These poor people use the finest and most delicate matter of sex, wasting it miserably in the satisfaction of their brutal mental passions. Sexual fantasy produces impotence of a psychosexual type. People with that kind of illness have normal erections; they are apparently normal men, but in the moment in which they try to connect the penis and the vulva, the erection abates making the phallus fall, leaving the man in the most horrible state of desperation. They have lived in sexual fantasy and when they really find themselves facing the crude sexual reality which has nothing to do with fantasy, they become confused and are unable to properly respond to reality The sexual sense is formidably subtle and tremendously rapid, thanks to its very fine and imponderable energy. The molecular level in which the sexual sense manifests is millions of times faster than thought waves. The logical mind and the fantasy as stumbling blocks for the sexual sense. When the logical mind with all its reasoning, or when sexual fantasy with all its erotic illusions wants to control the sexual sense or channel it into their illusions, then it is inevitably destroyed. The logical mind and sexual fantasy destroy the sexual sense when they try to put it at their service. Psychosexual impotence is the most terrifying tragedy that can afflict fanatical men and women or the purely rational type of person.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

When we look at a pornographic image, it injures the senses and then passes to the mind. The psychological "I" intervenes in these things, stealing the erotic image for itself, in order to reproduce it in the mental plane. In the world of the mind that image is transformed into a living effigy. During sleep the dreamer fornicates with that living effigy which, like an erotic demon tempts him for the satisfaction of the lust. The result is wet dreams with all their horrible con sequences. No true devotee of the path should visit cinemas because they are dens of black magic. The erotic figures of the screen give rise to mental effigies and erotic dreams. In addition the cinemas are full of diabolic elementals created by the human mind. Those malign elementals damage the mind of the spectators.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

Have you ever meditated even once on the danger of erotic images? Remember that within your mind you have a skilful translator. This translator is the "I", who always betrays the devouts of the Path. This "I" creates mental effigies, living demons of the Mental Plane. The devouts fornicate with these demons in the Mental Plane.

The Aquarian Message, 1960

We must watch over the "I" within all of the levels of consciousness, because many loyal and sincere devouts who achieved chastity in this valley of tears became terrible fornicators within the world of the Cosmic Mind.

The Aquarian Message, 1960

Yes, there are "I's" of lust that take hold of those "reels" that we carry in our brain, reels of memories, of passionate forms in us. The Ego projects the film, projects those reels on the screen of the mind. If one identifies with these morbid scenes, one also fortifies such "I's".

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactics for Buddhist Annihilation ·Conference at the end of the Missionary Course – Guadalajara, Jalisco. Mexico – From June 15 to August 30. 1976

If we do not proceed like that, if on the contrary we identify with it, if we love the scenes of lust, then, instead of dissolving such "I", it will be fortified extraordinarily.

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactics for Buddhist Annihilation ·Conference at the end of the Missionary Course – Guadalajara, Jalisco. Mexico – From June 15 to August 30. 1976

Let us assume that one, in the past, was fornicating with some other person of the opposite sex, and that he is insisting, or not, in eliminating lust. Then, the "I" of lust will seize the center of the memories, the intellectual center; it will grab the memory reel there, the scenes of lubricity and will make them pass through the fantasy of the person, and it will become more invigorated, it will become stronger and stronger.

The Fifth Gospel · The Rescue of Our Inner Light

If, for example, one goes to a cinema and watches a movie full of lust and identifies himself with a scene and so on, what happens? It is very clear that later, one ends up with an effigy very similar to the one he saw on the screen, and that effigy comes to life and comes to stay within one's innermost constitution, transformed into a new psychological "I", into a lustful "I".

The Fifth Gospel · Practical Solutions Against Collective Hypnotism · Third Chamber – Mexico City – 1976

Many, many years ago, I still had the bad habit of going to the cinema; about twenty years ago. One day, I attended a movie that had a rather lustful flavor; a couple appeared there, etc. I saw that movie and I forgot about it, I did not think about that movie anymore. But, in the world of the mind, things changed.

The Fifth Gospel · The Danger of Mental Effigies · Third Chamber – Mexico City – June 1977

Therefore, I never went back to the movies of those "a gogo", or those with lots of eroticism, a lot of lust and all that. I had an exception that was with Nostradamus; that is all.

The Fifth Gospel · The Danger of Mental Effigies · Third Chamber – Mexico City – June 1977

You go down the street; suddenly, you find a pornographic magazine on a comer, you start to look at it with some obscenity and the result is the creation of a new mental representation. That new representation is a bird of ill omen that gets into the cage of the mind to cause damage and fortify negative emotions and lust. The senses, therefore, must be controlled. Unfortunately, people don't remember to control the senses and the mind, and that is serious.

The Fifth Gospel · The Danger of Mental Effigies · Third Chamber – Mexico City – June 1977

> I have thoroughly studied The Elementals by Franz Hartmann. He assures that if a person wastes his sacred sperm through masturbation and lustful erotic images, he creates, if he is a male, a feminine representation, that is, a succubus –female–. But if a woman does the same thing, she creates an incubus –which is of a male nature–. It has been said that they are transparent like glass. They cause great damage because they continue to feed on the vital body of their progenitors.

The Fifth Gospel · The Danger of Mental Effigies · Third Chamber – Mexico City – June 1977

Master: Well, I am going to tell you: all sexual scenes are caused by the Ego. Simple "I's" of lust fornicate incessantly in the astral world, even in the mental world and even in the causal world as well. Nocturnal emissions arise as a consequence of such pornographic dreams.

The Fifth Gospel · The Need to Develop the Inner Mind · Interview – Mexico City – 1975

Gnostic students should learn to differentiate between dreams and visions. To dream is one thing and to have visions, another. No truly "awakened" Gnostic can dream. Only those who have the consciousness asleep live dreaming. The worst type of dreamer is the sexual dreamer. Those who live dreaming of carnal passions stupidly waste their creative energy in the satisfaction of their fantastic pleasures. Ordinarily, these people do not progress in their affairs. They fail in every sense. They end up in misery.

Later on, during our normal sleep, the mind, bottled up with the "I," fornicates with those mental effigies. This is why nocturnal pollutions occur.

> "I am also gifted with such mobility that in no time at all I can transfer myself invisibly from one part of the world to another, only revealing myself to those who love me. "Thus, having been told by the Gods that you have given me all your love, I came to you to express my gratitude and to remain with you and serve you in any way you please. "For this reason I have travelled all this way, let me then, sleep in your bed tonight, if you please. Do not be afraid of my company since I am a friend of chastity and modesty." The nun, greatly pleased and seduced by this speech, accepted the Angel into her bed. The first night everything was fine, he did not move. However the second night, he began to hug and kiss her as a sign of gratitude and love. Never leaving her day or night, he admonished her never to tell her secret to her confessor or anyone else.

It is clear that the lascivious spirit Fasting was an EGO, so vividly projected by the nun, that it seemed a different person altogether.

The Mystery of the Golden Blossom, 1971

There is no doubt that this Demon, transformed as it was into an ardent, fiery dog, was a lustful Ego that after having played the zither used to lose itself in the body of its owner that laid in the bed.

The Mystery of the Golden Blossom, 1971

Unquestionably, that young man and his ardent imagination and terrible lust had unconsciously used the ideo-plastic faculty to give subtle shape to his beloved. It is in this way that a succubus EGO came into existence, a passionate Demon with long tresses and a one-track mind.

The Mystery of the Golden Blossom, 1971

With just reason Christ said, "Out of a thousand who seek me, one finds me. Out of a thousand who find me, one follows me. Out of a thousand who follow me, one is mine." The intellect is the weapon that the black magicians use to drive us away from the doors of Eden. The lucifers have brilliant intellects. The lucifers despise sex and are fornicators; they are terribly wicked and hypocritical. What is most serious is the appearance of holiness that the tenebrous ones put on. They speak of the light of the Gospels, love and charity. They present themselves full of apparent humility, and then they say that sex has no importance, that sex is low and gross, that they seek the purest spirituality. This is how they shut the doors of Eden unto poor humanity. "But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.,,

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

Oh disciple of the rocky path, if you want to christify your mind, then you must have the vow of eternal chastity.

Igneous Rose, 1954

Now, there is a marked tendency toward self-consideration. Many people who apparently live a chaste life, suddenly fornicate due to self-consideration, and justify themselves by saying: "Yes, it was a necessity to have to fornicate", etc.

The Fifth Gospel · The Two Sides of Human Virtues · Lecture-Interview – Mexico City – 1977

Absolute chastity is impossible as long as the mechanical sub-imagination exists.

Fundamental Education, 1970

If we want absolute, complete and total chastity, we need to guard not only the conscious imagination, but also the mechanical imagination and the unconscious, automatic, subconscious, repressed sub-imagination.

In the physical world, some people attain perfect chastity and have the luxury of contemplating the nude body of a person of the opposite sex without feeling any lust. It is obvious that these exceptional people believe they have arrived at absolute chastity in the subconscious territories of the mind, not even remotely suspecting that both their sub imagination and subjective mechanical infra-imagination betray them below the limits of the intellectual sphere.

These people may have a pure imagination, but ignore the fact that in regions, unknown to their intellect, in their sub imagination and infra-imagination, they can be terrible fornicators. When this type of person undergoes a test of chastity in the superior worlds or in the submerged worlds of nature or when they are placed in the different states, situations, or time of the infraconscious or subconscious, they fail lamentably. Many people write us asking for a remedy for nocturnal pollutions. We always answer these sick people with the recipe of Sexual Magic, the Maithuna. Those who customarily restrain themselves in the sexual act to avoid ejaculating the seminal liquor cure themselves of nocturnal pollutions.

This is how disciples close to themselves the path that leads to the great mysteries. On the path, there are many brothers who commit adultery, with phrases like these, "My wife is refractory to the spiritualist teachings", "The other woman I have agrees with my ideas", "She is the only one with whom I can practice sexual magic to achieve in-depth realization", etc., and a thousand other mystical phrases. This is how adulterers shut the doors of the temple unto themselves.

A certain woman who committed adultery – who committed the crime of adultery–, on some occasion justified her crime by saying: "Yes, it's just that my husband did not satisfy me sexually, right? And I had to find another person with whom I could satisfy a very natural, very normal need." In other words, she justified her crime, and it seemed to her that she had not committed any fault.

The Ego is perverted, corrupt, vicious, false; it enjoys when justifying adultery, when making it sublime. The Ego endows adultery with ineffable, subtle excuses. It gives to itself the luxury of hiding, concealing adultery from itself and from others. The Ego decorates, adorns adultery with legitimate norms and divorce papers. He legalizes adultery through new nuptial ceremonies. Whosoever lusts after the spouse of the neighbor is, as a fact, an adulterer, even if this person never copulates with the coveted one. Indeed, I tell you that within the subconscious depths of the most chaste people adultery disguises itself with multiple faces.

Parsifal Unveiled, 1970

We should have a simple and out rightly childish mind. We should not conceal crimes. Sometimes, disciples send us letters demanding that we dominate the mind of this or that woman for them, supposedly to bring them to the good path. This is how they hide their lust in the incense of prayer.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

The seven schools of yoga are archaic and grandiose, but they could not escape the goals of the tenebrous. At the present time there are many infrasexuals who look for proselytes and establish schools of yoga. These individuals mortally hate the Path of the Perfect Matrimony, abhor White Sexual Magic. Some of them teach black tantrism. That is fatality.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

Igneous Rose, 1954

Those who resolve to cast on their shoulders the heavy cross of Initiation, will find themselves persecuted and even hated by the spiritualist brothers themselves, who live daily, talking about initiation. The spiritualist brothers who hate chastity, despise it because they are wolves dressed in sheepskin. They defend their beloved fornication with the most refined philosophies. When one talks to them about sexual magic, they immediately reject it because for them there is nothing more dear than fornication. If you, my brother, want to cast the heavy cross of initiation on your shoulders, do not let yourself be obstructed by the theories of those strayed souls. All those tenebrous beings crucified Christ.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

It is good to know that black magicians love to strengthen the mind. They assert that only through the mind can man resemble God. The magicians of darkness mortally hate chastity. The devotees of the path who abandoned the Path of the Perfect Matrimony to become disciples of the black lodge can be found by the million. It happens that the devotees of occultism are attracted by the “strange”, by the novel and mysterious, and when they find a "strange" magician they immediately place themselves in his hands, like any vulgar prostitute of the mind. This is fatality.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

27. Diviners are the black magicians, tenebrous seers, prophets of the Baalim who eat at Jezebel's table, teaching fornication and how to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

Igneous Rose, 1954

Others will tell you that going out in the astral body is dangerous and that it is not yet time. They are firmly convinced of their superiority over the profane. All of these people are of the abyss; they have a terrible and frightful pride, and are full of fear and fornications. They spill the semen miserably; that is why they are black magicians; however, they would never accept that they are. They defend their adorable fornication with refined sophisms and subtle philosophies accompanied by sweet smiles and apparent sweetness. Every association of fornicators is a black lodge. For those people who pose as Masters, gurus, avatars, elder brothers, great reformers, princes from India, etc., it is not convenient for their disciples to learn how to travel in the astral body. They fear that they will be discovered by their own disciples. Moreover, they themselves do not know how to get out in the astral body, therefore, much less can they teach it to others. Naturally, they try to obstruct their poor followers with their theories and inspiring of fear. There are others, who, with the pretext of organizing the great universal fraternity without any distinction of race, creed, caste, or color, let their beard and hair grow, and they try to monopolize all schools. The poor victims of the infamy end up becoming flocks of goats, intolerant and harmful fanatics. That is the reality of these times. That is why we advise our disciples to carefully avoid dealing with those schools of the abyss. Really, the way things are, it is better not to follow anyone, it is very dangerous. Let us adore our I Am.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

Lord Jehovah has told us as follows, "I have always helped thee. I shall always help thee. I will always help those who have passed through the schools of the Baals." The Baals are the tenebrous ones. All the schools, organizations, lodges, religions and sects that teach fornication are of the abyss. Those are the schools of the Baals who eat at Jezebel's table (fornication) and feed themselves with the foods offered to the idols (theories, intellectualisms, etc.).

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

2. The prophets of Baalim eat at Jezebel's table (the Baalim are the black magicians). 3. The prophets of Baalim who teach how to 'mystically' fornicate and how to eat things sacrificed unto idols are all the theorists and spiritualists of the world. Therefore, all their teachings are food sacrificed unto idols 4. The gentleman Parsival KrummHeller, sovereign commander of the 'so-called' Ancient Rosicrucian Order, with headquarters in Germany, is sending courses of black sexual magic to his tenebrous disciples. In his course, he advises the 'mystical' seminal ejaculation (orgasm).

A PRACTICE

The authentic deceased Initiates are they who have killed the "I", have taken possession of the Two Earths, and may enter at will into Amenti, or at will, here. It is for this reason that it is said that one has become King and Priest of the Earth according to the Order of Melchizedek. It is clear that if they allow themselves to fall, they lose the sceptre of com mand and hurtle downwards from the Tower. Upon the esoteric Path everyone has to struggle; the Twice-Born also. There are Initiates whose passage is blocked, due to the fact that the battle is very hard. The higher one is the harder and further one falls. One must be careful of the type of nourishment that the mind receives, such as that of the press, television and films. Transmute the oral and mental sperm with sepulchral offerings; that is to say, not to feed the mind with refuse because the carrion of the mind is useless: bad litera hire, bad films, bad television, bad words. It must not be forgotten that we have a terrible she-devil, "Kali", which is the abominable Kundartiguador organ, the terrifying Serpent, "Apopi". People are victims of Kali, the Tempting Serpent of which the Hindus speak.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

One is striving to not feel anger, but if he makes objections, then obviously, the demon of anger returns and gains strength. One is undertaking the terrible struggle to eliminate the demon of pride, but if he starts objecting to a bad situation, to this or to that, then he is strengthening that demon again. One is making efforts to end with the abominable lust, but if he starts making objections at any given moment: why the woman does not want to have sexual relations with him, or for the woman, why the man does not come after her, and fifty thousand objections of this kind, then the demon of lust is strengthened.

Continuing like this, with these processes of transformation of impressions, I will carry on with something more. If an image of a lustful woman reaches the mind, or appears in the mind, such an image is an impression, obviously. We could transform that lustful impression by means of comprehension. It would be enough for us to think that the aforementioned image is perishable, that beauty is therefore illusory. If we remembered in that instant that this woman has to die and that her body is going to turn into dust in the graveyard; if with imagination we saw her body in a state of disintegration inside the tomb, it would be more than sufficient for transforming that lustful impression into chastity. Result: no more "I's" of lust would emerge in the psyche.

The Fifth Gospel ·Psychological Protection Against Impressions ·Lecture given to the brothers of Colombia – Mexico City – 1974

A PRACTICE

Continuing the study of the processes of the transformation of impressions, I will proceed with something else. For example, the image of a lustful woman reaches the mind or surges in the mind. Such an image is an impression, that is obvious. We could transform that lustful impression through comprehension. It would be enough, in that instant, for us to think that that woman will one day die and that her body will become dust in the cemetery, and if with the imagination we saw her body in the process of disintegration in the grave, this would be more than sufficient to transform that lustful impression into chastity. If it is not transformed, it will be added to the other I of lust.

So, it is in life that we must discover ourselves. We have to be watching our own words, our own thoughts, our own ideas. There is no doubt that behind that disastrous "cinema" of the mind, behind that procession of morbid shapes, some "I" of lust is in activity.

When the mind besieges us with representations of hatred, fear, anger, cravings, covetousness, lust, etc., let us talk to it in this manner: "Mind, remove these things from me, I do not accept them from you, I am your master, I am your lord and you should obey me because you are my slave until the end of time!"

In the emotional centre

"Do not forget that the heart is also an erotic center."

The Fifth Gospel

For example, let's mention a specific case: lust. An "I" of lust, before a person of the opposite sex, may manifest itself in the mind with constant thoughts. It could manifest itself in the heart as an affection, as a seemingly pure love and clean of all stains to such a degree that one could perfectly justify himself and say: "But well, I do not feel lust for this person, what I am feeling is love".

The Fifth Gospel · The Rescue of Our Inner Light

Crime escapes, it likes evasions, etc. For example, there are people who say they love beauty, men who fall in love with a lady who seemed beautiful to them, there are even Gnostic brothers, esotericists, who simply consider that they love beauty and justify themselves in thousands of ways. But if they saw what is happening in the unconscious, subjective processes, if they self-explored intimately, they would discover the tremendous lust of their interior.

The Fifth Gospel · Clarifications About the Psychological Work

Usually, affections degenerate into lust, they are useless. Do not forget that the heart is also an erotic center. I repeat, the best is love, and love does not accept affection. It is pure, splendid, beautiful, selfless; it is confirmed by deeds, by facts.

The Fifth Gospel · The Mind and Ethics of Resurrected Masters · Third Chamber – Mexico City – December 31. 1975

Let us keep an eye on our own actions. Where do affections come from and what are affections? Affections are based on lust and are filthy. Let us remember that the heart is also an erotic center that can inevitably leads to sexual abuse. All those sentimentalities of men and women degenerate into fornication, lust, morbidity. Therefore, affections are the result of lust. Love is the most beautiful thing there is, of the purest; it is disinterested, it is like a newborn child, it desires nothing for itself, but all for the loved one; it is clean from affection, but knows how to fulfil its duty. It is demonstrated with facts and not simply with vain insubstantial talk of ambiguous chatter.

The Fifth Gospel · The Mind and Ethics of Resurrected Masters · Third Chamber – Mexico City – December 31. 1975

The marriage made without Love, based only on economical or social interests is really a sin against the Holy Spirit. This type of marriage will inevitably fail. Lovers frequently confuse desire with Love and the worst of the matter is that they marry believing that they are in love.

Having consummated the sexual act, the carnal passion satisfied, then comes disenchantment. What remains is the terrible reality.

The enemies of Love are called fornicators. They confuse Love with desire. Any magician that teaches the ejaculation of the semen is a black magician. Every person who spills the seminal fluid is a fornicator. It is impossible to attain the intimate selfrealisation, whilst one has not killed animal desire. Those who spill the Glass of Hermes are incapable of loving. Love and desire are incompatible. Whoever spills the Glass of Hermes is a victim of animal desire. Love is incompatible with desire and fornication. SUFISM The most ineffable part of Mohammedan mysticism is Persian Sufism. It has the merit of struggling against materialism and fanaticism, and against the literal interpretation of the Koran. The Sufis interpret the Koran from the esoteric point of view as we, the Gnostics interpret the New Testament.

An inhabitant of a two-dimensional world, with their two-dimensional psychology would believe that all the phenomena occurring in that plane would have their cause and effect, their birth and death there. Such phenomena would for these beings, be identical. All phenomena which came from the third dimension would be taken by these twodimensional beings as unique facts of their two-dimensional world; they would not accept being told of a third dimension because for them, only their flat, two-dimensional world would exist. Nevertheless, if these flat beings would resolve to abandon their twodimensional psychology in order to deeply compre hend the causes of all the phenomena of their world, they could then depart from it and discover with astonishment a great unknown world the three-dimensional world. The same thing happens with the question of Love. People believe that Love is only to perpetuate the species. People only believe that Love is vulgarity, carnal pleasure, violent desire, satisfaction etc. Only the person who can see beyond these animal passions, only the person who renounces this type of animal psychology can discover in other worlds and dimensions the grandeur and majesty of that which is called Love. People sleep profoundly. People live sleeping and dream about Love, but they have not awakened to Love. They sing about Love and believe that Love is that which they dream. When man awakens to Love, he makes himself conscious of Love and recognises that he was dreaming. Then and only then does he discover the true meaning of Love.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

Adultery is the cruel result of lack of Love. A woman truly in love would prefer death before adultery. The man who commits adultery is not in love.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

Now, let us suppose that it was not simply jealousy, but rather that it went further, there really was adultery. Then a divorce will have to follow, that is for sure, because the Divine Law authorizes this.

In this case, it can be said with absolute certainty that this pain can also be sacrificed and one can say: "Well, it's done, she has committed adultery. Am I sure of never having committed adultery? Of course not. If I am an adulterer –it is said–, then why do I condemn? I have no right to condemn anyone, because whoever feels clean of sin may throw the first stone." So, who is the one causing me pain? The "I's" of intolerance, self-importance, jealousy, self-love, etc.

The mind is love's worst enemy.

Are you sure, for example, that you have never had a relationship with another woman? Is one sure that one has never slept with another female? Is one sure that one has never been an adulterer, neither in this nor in past reincarnations? Clearly not, we have all been adulterers, fornicators in the past, that is obvious. If one reaches the conclusion that he has also been a fornicator and an adulterer, then with what authority is he judging the woman? Why does he do it? When judging her, he does so without authority.

The Fifth Gospel ·Gnostic Consequences of the Immolation of Pain ·Lecture-Interview – Mexico City – 1976

> And already Jesus the Christ, in the parable of the adulteress –that woman of the Christic Gospels–, exclaimed: "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her!" No one threw it. Not even Jesus dared to throw it; he said: "Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Neither do I condemn you; go and sin no more." Not even he himself, who was so perfect, dared to do so, being him. Now, with what authority would we do it?

The Fifth Gospel ·Gnostic Consequences of the Immolation of Pain ·Lecture-Interview – Mexico City – 1976

Every rotten old man or woman passes through tremendous passionate, lustful states before dying, and they believe that this is love. It is impossible for old people to love, because the mind destroys it with its senility, fixed ideas, prejudices, jealousies, experiences, memories, sexual passions, etc. The mind is love's worst enemy. "A fornicator is an individual who has intensely accustomed his genital organs to copulate."

The Revolution of Beelzebub, 1950

We do not mention the name of this "chocolate saint" we only limit ourselves to say that he had abandoned his wife and children supposedly to follow the path of sanctity. He preached beautiful things and spoke horrors against adultery and fornication, but in secrecy, he had many concubines arid proposed anti-natural sexual connections through non vessels to his female devotees. Yes, he was a saint, a "chocolate saint"!

The Revolution of the Dialectic

There are many brothers on the path who use sexual magic as a pretext to seduce many naive (female) devotees; this is how these mystical adulterers depart from the altar of initiation and fall into the abyss.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

There exists fraud in he who opens a Gnostic center and then bewilders with his transgr essions, being in love with the neighbor's wife, seducing with the purpose of practicing sexual magic, committing adultery in hiding, desiring the Isis in the temple, exploiting the brothers of the Sanctuary, promising what he cannot fu1 preaching what he does not fulfill, doing the reverse of what is taught, creating scandals, drinking alcohol in front of the surprised devotees, etc.

Yes, There Is a Hell, a Devil and Karma, 1973

Everything in life is a matter of customs. A fornicator is an individual who has intensely accustomed his genital organs to copulate. Yet, if the same individual changes his custom of copulation to the custom of no copulation, then, he transforms himself into a chaste person.

All those who have raised the serpent upon the staff must be absolutely chaste in thought, word and action. They must practice internal meditation daily, must not be gluttons, or consume liquor, or be carnivores. To be always clean, always tidy, always pure. Modern times demand that our daughters receive a solid intellectual and spiritual preparation. It is indispensable that mothers teach their daughters the Mysteries of Sex when they reach fourteen years of age. It is right that they should walk on the triple path of Truth, Love and Chastity.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

The modern woman should have a profession to make a living. It is necessary that fathers and mothers understand that their daughters also need to grow spiritually and to reproduce with the Perfect Matrimony. Nevertheless everything must be done properly and with order. It is absurd that daughters should go out alone on the streets, or in parks, or to cinemas or dances with a boyfriend. Since they have not yet killed the Animal Ego, they are easily sexually seduced, and fail miserably. Daughters should always be accompanied by their parents or family members and should never be alone with a boyfriend. Parents should never impede the marriage of their daughters. Nevertheless, I repeat, do everything with Order and according to the Law. It is necessary to reproduce with chastity and to grow spiritually. That is the Path of the Perfect Matrimony.

After having perfumed that cloth with the smoke of those herbs, then the cloth has to be blessed by making three passes in the form of a cross with 'blessed water.' Afterwards, it has to be perfumed with a fine rose essence, heliotrope essence and eau de cologne. The assistants must keep themselves in chastity and must cleanse themselves from astral larvae. Therefore, they must practice sexual magic; they must never cohabit in their lives. The cleanse is made by performing baths with the plant called 'Mano de Dios' or 'Lengua de Baco.' Do not mistake this plant with 'Lengua de Vaca' (Rumex crispus L.). The Magician will trace a circle on the ground around this plant when the ritual is being performed. "It comes in the genes, it is in the genes, and that is what is most serious."

THE FIFTH GOSPEL

When we observe, within the supra-sensitive regions of nature and the cosmos, Kali in her outpost, we are filled with awe and feel almost helpless before the serpent of the Abyss. And the thing is that Kali, my dear brothers, is something abysmal. It comes in the genes, it is in the genes, and that is what is most serious. It is well known what are the genes enclosed within the chromosomes. In the genes –sexual genes– lies the heredity of the race. Those genes of the germ cell are definitive. Therein lies all the sexual heredity of our ancestors, all the fornication, all the lust of our parents, grandparents, great-grandparents, etc. All of them were lascivious; none of us can boast of having had among our ancestors someone who did not have lasciviousness. And –I repeat– in our genes we have that heredity; we have Kali in living expression, the horrible serpent that moves from generation to generation; that horrible viper, that Python which from age to age walks through the very abysmal depths of our biology; that seductive, monstrous, gigantic serpent that one day, if we do not self-realize, will devour us in the eighth Dantean circle until having completely disintegrated us in the ninth.

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · THE BINARY SERPENTINE POWER

Kali and Durga, the two wives of Lord Shiva, even though they are contradictory, in the end they are in agreement for our own good. But –and this what is important– the Adepthood is different. Whoever wants to become an Adept has to defeat Kali, to break those rings which have him constrained, which he carries in his heredity. Do you know what it means to achieve absolute chastity? To rebel in fact against the same genes that one carries in his biology, against the heredity of his ancestors, his parents, his grandparents, his great-great-grandparents, his ancestors –who were all fornicators–; to rebel against this.

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · THE BINARY SERPENTINE POWER

One can say this on the basis of pure subjective rationalism, but living it is something else; because even though a man may revolt with simple rationalism, innate to him is always the tendency to fornication, to lust. No matter the reasons with which he objects, the syllogisms he exposes, the conclusions he has reached from the logical point of view, the inductions or the deductions, lust is always lust, and this comes in the genes. This is the innate consequence, the abysmal serpent in the depths of sexology, of Kali in action, of the fatal viper that, from generation to generation, keeps us within this world of frightful bitterness.

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · THE BINARY SERPENTINE POWER

You have two faces. Right now, you have a face that responds, that you are listening here to the conference, that you are listening, right? But you have another very different face. In the marital bed you are already different. In the midst of lust, you look nothing like the people sitting here. And Kali does not care what position you have here right now; she is laughing at you. She grabs you in a very different way, precisely in that sphere where you do not reason, and that is what is serious, and it is difficult. But we have to be sincere if you want Adepthood.

All they who feel themselves to be unclean, with larvae, or in misery, must utilise the 5 perfumes to perfume themselves, this is on the condition that they follow the Path of Perfect Chastity. In the Lumisials [Gnostics Churches] the custom of cleansing those brothers who feel themselves to be covered in larvae should be established. In this way their souls and their bodies will receive the benefits.

Everyone who feels that they are filthy and coated with larvae, or are just feeling down and out, must utilize the five aromatic essences and fumigate themselves with them, on the condition that they are treading the path of perfect chastity. Beyond Death

Fornication is the principal cause of Sciatica. Therefore, whosoever suffers from this painful sickness has to abandon the ominous, repugnant and vile vice of coitus, if he wishes to be healed. Moreover, the sick person must nourish himself with a good diet based on vegetables, cereals and orchard produce. He also will rub his knees and hips with vinegar, he will use a rag soaked in the vinegar for this. This rag must previously be snioked with rosemary.

Occult Medicine and Practical Magic, 1978

A PRACTICE

The intense pain which the Sciatica produces is similar to the pain which Gout produces, plus there is the grave consequence of becoming an invalid, because the person reaches the crippled state. Therefore, for these grave motives, it is urgent that this medication is used in conjunction with chastity. Let the fornicators say whatever they want, but know that such is the cause, such is the effect.

Occult Medicine and Practical Magic, 1978

A PRACTICE

Our human seeds are nurtured by three basic foods: First of all, by what we eat; second, by what we breathe, and third, by what we think. This is why we have asked you to pursue wholesome health, by staying away from vices, separating yourselves from the sins of the flesh and practicing chastity in your thoughts, words, and in actions. And do not forget that we ask this of you and not of outside people. That is why the Christ would say: "...neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feel, and turn again and rend you." (Matthew 7:6).

THE PERFECT MATRIMONY, 1966

The Initiate only unites sexually with his wife in order to practice Sexual Magic. Unhappy are they who unite with woman to spill the semen. The Initiate is not suddenly overwhelmed by that feeling of death which fornicators experience when they lose their semen. Man is one half; woman, the other half. During the sexual act one experiences the happiness of being complete. Those who do not spill the semen conserve that happiness eternally. It is not necessary to spill the semen to create a child. The spermatozoon that escapes without the loss of semen is a selected spermatozoon, a spermatozoon of a superior type, a totally mature spermatozoon. An infant of a very high order is the result of this form of fecundation. This is how we are able to form a race of Supermen.

TAROT AND KABALAH, 1978

The redemption of man is found in the Serpent, but we must be on guard against the guile of the Serpent. One should contemplate the forbidden fruit and inhale its aroma, but remember the words of the Lord Jehovah: "If thou eatest of this fruit ye shall die." We should enjoy the happiness of love and adore woman. A good painting enchants us, a beautiful piece of music can transport us to ecstasy, but a beautiful, adorable woman makes us want to possess her immediately. She is the living representation of God the Mother. The sexual act with the one we adore has its unquestionable de lights. Sexual pleasure is a legitimate right of man. Enjoy the happiness of love but do not spill the semen. Do not commit sacrilege. Do not be a fornicator. Chastity converts us into Gods. Fornication converts us into demons.

Bear in mind that it is with the Cross that the undesirable elements have been eliminated. The fidelity to the Father is demonstrated with the Cross; there are many who say, I am faithful to the Father, to the Mother, to the Son of Man, but when the hour of testing comes, in the moment of truth, they fail with the Cross. Where is the Cross? This is the Cross of the Lingam-Yoni; it is here that they fornicate, adulterate, commit their evil deeds. Thus the undesirable elements must be disintegrated in order to seek the death of the earthly man.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

Why are there so many confusions in the world? You see that the humanoids do not understand each other. I will give you a specific case. A lady, suddenly, for example, decides to help a gentleman because she likes him, because she finds him very nice, etc. She can do that disinterestedly; this lady does not have any thought of lust, she is not in love with the gentleman; he only seems like a good person and she wants to help him in his different needs, etc. But what happens? The gentleman has Ego and the Ego controls the five cylinders of his machine. As the Ego controls those five cylinders of his machine, then he interprets those kind actions of the lady as he pleases. Instead of going to the emotional center, it passes to another cylinder: to the instinctive-sexual center, and then lust arises in that gentleman.

The Fifth Gospel ·The Objective Knowledge of the Essence ·Lecture given to Gnostic students – 1976

A lot of people have asked me about this thing of the nocturnal emissions. I have always answered them: such emissions do not disappear as long as one does not put an end to passionate or morbid dreams, and this type of dream does not stop as long as one does not put an end to all the "I's" of lust. As long as there are "I's" of lust, well, there are pornographic dreams; and as long as there are pornographic dreams, there are emissions. So, there is no other alternative than to eliminate the "I's" of lust in order to cancel the nocturnal emissions, to liquidate them forever; there is no other choice. Any other remedy is absurd, it does not work.

The Fifth Gospel ·The Need to Develop the Inner Mind ·Interview – Mexico City – 1975

But if on another day another emission arises, what does this mean? That there is another lustful "I" that produces it. Then we will have to repeat the same. And, after all is said and done, the day when that kind of "I's" no longer remain, the emissions will have ended. That is the only path to be able to cure ourselves.

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactics for Buddhist Annihilation ·Conference at the end of the Missionary Course – Guadalajara, Jalisco. Mexico – From June 15 to August 30. 1976

Many mystical Initiates believe that they are chaste because they do not have a spouse. Nevertheless, they have nocturnal pollutions. This is how they miserably loose their Christic semen, within which is found the Genesis of the Great Life.

The poor nun, with her ancestral sexual passions which were compulsorily restrained, how much she had to suffer!

The Mystery of the Golden Blossom, 1971

We met a poor mystical old woman. She looked at sex with repugnance, as something vulgar, dirty and gross; she considered herself to be totally chaste and pure. When we studied her Satan (her Guardian of the Threshold) to know her purifications, we were surprised and had to defend ourselves. That Satan attacked us in a horrible manner. The sexual wants of that poor soul were terrible; it is just that the body of a sick old woman was of no use to her for passionate satisfactions, that was all.

Many say, "Sex is vulgar, I am chaste and pure, I am very spiritual; I am no longer attracted by that garbage of sex," etc.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

When we examine the Satan of those super transcended mystics, we verify that those souls are full of terribly suppressed sexual wants. Satan is robust and strong in fornicators.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

Those poor souls who look at sex as something repugnant, are really only defending their Satan, maintaining it fat, robust and strong. In new returns, that type of male and female mystics end up in the most horrible carnal passions.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

There are also many women, who under the said pretext of reaching profound self—realization, unite with any male. What these passionate women want is to satiate their carnal desires. The world will always be the same, and since we have been disclosing the Great Arcanum there have appeared, as was to be expected, the pigs who trample on the Doctrine and then die, poisoned by the Bread of Wisdom. The cult of Sexual Magic can only be practiced between husband and wife. We clarify this in order to avoid seductions, carnal impulses and passionate, lustful "saints".

The Mysteries of Eleusis still exist in secret. The Great Baltic Initiate, Von Uxkul is one of the most exalted Initiates of that school. This Great Initiate practices Sexual Magic intensely. We should make it clear that Sexual Magic may only be practiced between husband and wife. The adulterous man or adulterous woman inevitably fails. You can only be married when there is Love. Love is Law, but conscious Love.

The woman, being the receptive, passive element clearly collects and stores the results of the sexual act with all those men who commit adultery with her. Those results are atomic substances from the men with whom she has had sexual intercourse. When a man has sexual relations with a woman who has been with another man or other men, he then absorbs atomic essences of the other men and poisons himself with them. This is a very grave problem for the brothers who are dissolving the "I", because then, not only do they have to fight against their own errors and defects, but also, in addition against the errors and defects of those other men with whom the woman had sexual contact.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

He was living as a penitent in a frightful desert. He wanted to be a Saint; thus, he became an enemy to all that could have sexual savor. He dreadfully fought against the animal passions, he wore bloody sackcloths upon his flagellated body and he cried a lot. Nevertheless, everything was useless, since his lust, lasciviousness and his secret impudence, in spite of all his efforts and sacrifices, were swallowing him alive. The kabbalistic traditions say that Adam had two wives: Lilith and Nahemah. Lilith is the mother of abortion, homosexuality and in general, all sorts of crimes against nature. Nahemah is the mother of malign beauty, of passion and adultery. The abyss is divided into two great regions: the spheres of Lilith and Nahemah. In these two great regions infrasexuality reigns sovereign.

The sphere of Nahemah seduces with the charm of her malign beauty. In this infrasexual sphere we find all the "Don Juans and feme the world of prostitution develops in this sphere. The infrasexuals of Nahemah feel they are very manly. In this sphere live those who have many women. They are happy in adultery. They believe them selves to be very manly, ignoring that they are infrasexual.

In the sphere of Nahemah we also find millions of prostitutes. These poor women are victims of the fatal charm of Nahemah. In the sphere of Nahemah we find elegant women of high social position. These people are happy in adultery. That is their world. In the infrasexual region of Nahemah we find sweetness that moves the soul. Virgins who seduce with the charm of their tenderness. Beautiful seductive women. Men who abandon their homes be witched by the enchantment of those precious beauties.

Sometimes we find mystical types in the infrasexual sphere of Nahemah. They do not drink, eat meat or smoke and may well be very religious, though they are not vegetarian. The mystic type of Nahemah is only passionate in secret. They wildly enjoy sexual passions even if later they may make terrible pronouncements against sexual passion. At times they accept the Arcanum A.Z.F., but leave after a short while when they find some consoling doctrine which preaches phrases such as: "God said, "Be fruitful and multiply", "The sexual act is a purely animal function and spirituality has nothing to do with this act" etc., etc. Then the infrasexual of Nahemah, finding justification for ejaculating the seminal fluid, leaves the Path of the Perfect Matrimony.

The sphere of Nahemah is represented by another type of violence against nature, the irredeemable fornicators, the fornicators of abomination, etc., persons who find themselves quite defined as the Don Juan type or Casanova type and even the devil type, which is the worst of the worst.

Yes, There Is a Hell, a Devil and Karma, 1973

In the sphere of Lilith we find those who prefer abortions, and people who use the contraceptive pill, who do not want to have children, and the result is obvious. In the sphere of Nahemah we find they who are fascinated by sex, men who are terrible fornicators, women who are given to adultery, pride, vanity, who divorce and marry again. The kabalistic traditions say that when a man abandons his wife to marry another, his forehead remains marked with a Luciferic Fire. The kabalists affirm that when a woman marries a man who does not belong to her, on the day of the wedding she appears “bald “, and she unconsciously covers her head excessively.

We know the case of an old anchorite who preached a certain pseudo-occultist doctrine. Everyone worshipped that man, considering him a saint. Apparently, he was a Master and people venerated him. Finally, one poor woman discovered all, when he pro posed to her an unnatural sexual union, saying that it was to initiate her. Really this anchorite was an infrasexual. Nevertheless, he said he had made a vow of chastity. That man mortally hated the Arcanum A.Z.F (Sexual Magic) and considered it dangerous. However, he did not find any difficulty in proposing extravaginal unions to his devotees, because really he was an infrasexual. Who could have doubted this man? Apparently he was a saint. So people believed... His followers considered him a Master. He hated sex. Indeed, he mortally hated it. That is characteristic of infrasexual degenerates. The most serious is that they consider themselves superior to people of normal sexuality. They feel that they are super transcendent, and they reach the point of seducing people of normal sexuality and convert them into their followers. In our mission of divulging Gnostic esoterism, we have had the opportunity to study infrasexuals. Often we hear them saving phrases such as the following: “You Gnostics are egoists because you only ever think about your Kundalini and Sexual Magic”, “you are sexual fanatics”, “ Sexual Magic is purely animal”, “sex is something very gross”, “I am a spiritualist and I hate all that is materialistic and gross”, “sex is filthy”, “there are many paths to reach God”, “I live only for God and I am not interested in that rubbish about sex”, “I practice Chastity and hate sex” etc. This is precisely the language of infrasexuals. Always self-sufficient, always with the pride of feeling superior to people of normal sexuality. An infrasexual woman who hated her husband said to us: “I would only practice Sexual Magic with my guru.” She made this statement in the presence of her husband. That woman did not have a sexual relationship with her husband, apparently because she hated sex. None the less she accepted the practice of Sexual Magic, but only with her guru. She had an affinity with the guru because he was also an infrasexual. This is the “saint” al ready mentioned in this chapter; the one who enjoyed proposing unnatural sexual union to his female devotees. We know the case of an Archi-Hierophant who hated women and often made statements such as, "I kick women around.” He preached a doctrine and his followers adored him as a God. He always lived surrounded by adolescents, and so he spent his time until the police discovered everything. He was a transvestite, a homosexual corrupter of minors. Nevertheless he had the pride of all infrasexuals; the pride of feeling super transcendent, ineffable, divine.

On a certain occasion when we were advising a spiritualist sister about the exercises of sexual magic with her husband, she cynically answered us that she would only practice sexual magic with her guru; she gave us this answer in front of her own husband. We objected to these words telling her that sexual magic can only be practiced between spouses. Really, no profane adulterer in the world would give such an impudent answer before her husband. Such barbarities would only occur to the irresponsible persons of spiritualism . What is worse is that the guru of this poor sister was only an adorable impostor, a mystic bandit, an executioner of souls.

It is evident that the sacred fire in black tantrism is precipitated from the coccyx towards the atomic infernos of man; then appears the tail of Satan, the abominable KUNDARTIGUADOR organ.

Yes, There Is a Hell, a Devil and Karma, 1973

You see then, friends in what m the Divine Mother loves her child; those who wander around lost, the black tantric persona, on developing the serpent of fatality, inevitably condemn themselves to the second death.

Yes, There Is a Hell, a Devil and Karma, 1973

In the eighth infernal circle there unfortunately dwell the false alchemists (the black tantric persons), the falsifiers of metal, those who crystallized negatively; to be more clear those who instead of crystallizing the Sexual Hydrogen S142 in the superior existential bodies of the Being, made it crystallize negatively to really transform themselves into adepts of the tenebrous countenance who inevitably get to be devoured by the horrible serpent of the fatalities.

Yes, There Is a Hell, a Devil and Karma, 1973

Within black tantrism we find the Bhöns and Dugpas of the “Red Cap”, terrible and perverse black magicians. These malevolent people have disgusting procedures to reabsorb the semen through the urethra after having miserably spilled it. The result is fatal because the semen, after having been spilled is charged with satanic atoms, which on re-entering the body acquires the power to awaken Kundalini negatively. It then descends to the Atomic Infernos of Man and becomes the tail of Satan. This is how the human being separates himself permanently from his Divine Being and sinks for ever into the abyss. Everyone who spills the Glass of Hermes is rightly recognised as a black magic In Hindustan, Sexual Magic is known as Maithuna. It is also known as Urdhvaretas yoga and those who practise it are called Urdhvaretas yogis.

I am not saying that the Dugpas are saints, gentle lambs; they are Black Magicians because they teach black Tantrism. The Bons however, al though they wear the red cap, are not black as Blavatsky mistakenly supposed. It is clear that if one of the Bons does not want Self-Realisation, but rather to free himself for a time to later return, for example, in the Sixth Root Race, or even never desires to Self-Realise, but only to free himself without Self-Realisation, then he will attain it.

A PRACTICE

If the student wants a key to discover these people of the shadow, we shall give it to him with great pleasure. Speak to the person about White Sexual Magic without the spilling of the semen. Mention the scientific chastity to them. Tell them that you never spill your se men. This is the key. You can be sure that if the suspected person is really a black magician, he will try every means to convince you that Sexual Magic is bad for the health, that it is harmful, and will suggest to you the idea of spilling the semen. Be careful, good disciple, of such people who advise you to spill the Glass of Hermes. They are black magicians. Do not let them seduce you with their sweet words, exotic manners or strange names. Every devotee who spills the Glass of Hermes inevitably falls into the abyss of fatality. Be vigilant. Remember that the Path of the Perfect Matrimony is the Path of the Razor's Edge. This path is full of danger, both within and without. Many are they who begin, but it is very difficult to find someone who does not leave the path.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

Every Gnostic student should avoid black tantrism and those who teach black sexual magic, if they do not want to fall into the abyss of fatality.

437. All the spiritualist henchmen of fornication are black magicians because they are disobeying the commandment which was given by the Lord Jehovah, as stated in the following verses: 438. The Gnostic Esotericist shall only be able to have sexual contact when he gets married. The fires cannot be awakened without sexual magic. Nothing is achieved in these studies without chastity. The authentic marriage is the union of a couple, in spirit, soul and sex; the true marriage should be pure like the lotus flower.

When the couples magnetize each other, things progress and happiness makes its nest in the home. When a man and a woman unite, something is created. Scientific chastity permits the transmutation of the sexual secretions into Light and Fire. Every religion which degenerates preaches celibacy. Every religion at its birth and in its glorious splendor preaches the Path of the Perfect Matrimony. Buddha was married and established the Perfect Matrimony. Unfortunately, the prophecy made by Lord Buddha was fulfilled with complete exactitude five hundred years later: that his dharma would be exhausted and that the Sangha would be divided into dissident sects. It was then that Buddhist monasticism, and the hatred of the Perfect Matrimony was born.

There were also some hallucinated mystics who pleaded in favor of an absurd type of chastity, which some religious sects preach, but do not practice. They ignore that Nature is in rebellion against that harmful abstinence, which causes nocturnal pollutions and the decalcification of the organism through the urethra. Sickness is the consequence. Men were made for women and women for men, because Nature is wise in its designs. What man and woman have to learn is to enjoy themselves without hurting each other, and the answer for this is 'sexual magic'.

In Oriental Occultism, on the topic of Tantric esotericism, there is a lot of material to investigate, study, and analyze. Throughout Asia, there are numerous schools that agree with the virtue of continence and the non-ejaculation of seminal fluid. The Solar and Lunar atoms arise from the seminal system. The seminal vapors have as a base the atoms of the Sun and the Moon. The seminal vapors are transmuted into energy. The energies bipolarize into positive and negative, Solar and Lunar. These energies rise through the sympathetic channels of Ida and Pingala to the Chalice. This Chalice is the brain. The semen, already totally converted into energies, rises through the two sympathetic channels which are the Two Witnesses of Apocalypse, the two Olives of the Temple, the two Candelabra which are before the God of the Earth, the two Serpents which are entwined on the rod of the Caduceus of Mercury. When their tails touch, the Solar and Lunar atoms make contact in the coccyx near the Tribeni. Then Kundalini awakens.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

During the act of love, the Gnostic couple transmutes their semen into atomic energy by restraining the sexual act. This energy then rises upwards towards their head, through certain spermatic canals. This is how the human being is converted into a God.

The human organism has its canals for the spilling of the semen. However, it also possesses seminal canals through which the semen, when transformed into energy, rises from the seminal glands upwards towards the head. This is because the mass (semen) is always transformed into energy, as was already proven by the wise and great Einstein. This process is what we call 'transmutation'.

The Revolution of Beelzebub, 1950

Sexuality in people of normal sex is in perfect balance with the spheres of thought, feeling and will. These people do not abuse sex, nor do they have aberrations of any kind. The moments of sexual pleasure always come before the moments of mystic ecstasy.

The Way of Tao includes three ways, being itself the fourth way. Much has been said about the four paths. We, the Gnostics are fully aware that we follow the fourth path. During the sexual act we transmute the brutal instincts of the physical body into will, the passion ate emotions of the astral into love, the mental impulses into comprehension; and we as Spirits realize the Great Work Thus we travel the four ways in practice. We do not need to become fakirs for the first way, nor monks for the second, nor scholars for the third. The Path of the Perfect Matrimony enables us to traverse the four ways during the sexual act itself.

We achieve the power to place the physical body in the Jinn state with Pranayama. It is very important to practice Pranayama before using these keys. It is interesting to know that the two witnesses, Ida and Pingala, in their final synthesis, are rooted in the right and left testicles of the male and in the ovaries of the female. Through this pair of nervous canals, the solar and lunar atoms of the seminal system rise until they reach the chalice (the brain). The nostrils and the sexual organs are connected through the two witnesses. This invites us to reflect. Pranayama, among other things, is truly a system of sexual transmutation for single people.

A PRACTICE

The Pranayama is a system of sexual transmutation for bachelors of both sexes. We already know that from the male's testicles and the woman's ovaries emerge the two ganglionic cords, which, intertwining along the spinal column in the form of an 8, ascend to the cerebrum. These are the Two Witnesses of which the Apocalypse speaks about; the Two Candlesticks before the throne of the God of the Earth. These two nerves are hollow inside; they are fine channels through which the sexual energies ascend to the cerebrum. The student inhales the breath through the left nostril, exhaling through the right and vice-versa. He controls the nostrils in an alternate manner with the thumb and index fingers. When inhaling through the right nostril, we intensely imagine the radiant and sublime solar atoms rising through the right cord to the cerebrum. Hold the breath and then carry it to the area between the eyebrows, the throat and heart, successively. One then exhales, focusing that energy in the heart with the imagination and the will. When inhaling through the left nostril, we imagine the lunar atoms like pure water of life, rising through the left channel, in the same route until focusing them in the heart. We then exhale with profound faith. This is how bachelors can transmute their sexual energies. Bachelors should find a wife if they want to christify themselves.

A PRACTICE

Now, we must pray, meditate, transmute and vocalize in order for the Phoenix Bird to resurrect from its own ashes.

The Aquarian Message, 1960

A PRACTICE

Any "I" of lust could manifest itself in the heart as love and in the mind as an ideal. Yet, as we pay attention to the sexual center, we may feel a certain morbid, unmistakable excitement.

Treatise of Revolutionary Psychology, 1975

Master: Well, it should not seem strange to you. It is obvious that if a Buddha has disintegrated his Ego, but that Buddha, for example, falls into the vice of fornication or adultery, if he spills the Glass of Hermes, the Ego simply arises in him again, it resurrects. But it is not a new Ego, it is the old one, and it resurrects from its own ashes like the Phoenix Bird of mythology.

A PRACTICE

But if one is observant, if he takes great care in his machine and observes the sexual center, he comes to discover that in the sexual center there is some activity in front of that person. With that it is proven that the affection is not such, the love for that person is not such, but that what exists is lust. But see how fine the crime is: lust can perfectly disguise itself in the heart as love, write poems, etc., but it is lust in disguise.

Follow my advice; do many charitable works, observe chastity, bathe with aromatic herbs, such as peppermint, chamomile, eucalyptus, walnut, etc. Use these plants for 40 days in your daily bath and, I repeat, do charitable works by the ton; only in this way can you improve your economic situation.

Beyond Death

A PRACTICE

1. Sir, I have a business and lately the status of my economic situation has been very difficult; my establishment is running terribly; my clients have left me. What should I do? Above all, my dear friend, I must tell you that you need to observe 40 days of absolute chastity, since I understand that you have lived a very profane life, you have been quite a fornicator, you have stupidly wasted your sexual energies.

Beyond Death

A PRACTICE

Whereas you are a profane man who knows nothing about our esoteric studies, the only thing that I can advise to you is to observe at least 40 days of absolute chastity in order to accumulate sexual energies and give force to your pineal gland. In this way, you will improve your economic situation; you will have a favorable change.

A PRACTICE

When Gnostic matrimonies want to give a physical body to a great Master of the White Lodge, then they must inevitably descend to the ninth sphere with Arcanum number nine of the Tarot. That Arcanum is sex. The mother of the child of wisdom must prepare herself for a period of nine months before she can create with the power of KriyaShakti. During this period of time, she must pray a lot to the Divine Mother, begging her with all her heart and with all her soul to give her the joy of conceiving in her womb a great Master, in order to help humanity. The preparation is for nine months; nine months of chastity, saintliness and meditation before she can perform the secret act with her husband.

The Yellow Book, 1959

A PRACTICE

The future father of the child must also not be a fornicator. He must abstain for a period of nine months. He and she must only pray a lot to the Divine Mother, beseeching her so that they can have the happiness of having a great Master as their child.

The Yellow Book, 1959

From the union of men and women, fornicators in beds of pleasure, men condemned to death and suffering, are born.

Christmas Messages, 1952-66

However, from the union of chaste men and women following the principles of Sexual Magic, instead of engendering children of death, we can engender the God Child of Bethlehem, the Christ I; we need this in order to ascend to the Father and to receive the Holy Spirit, which gives us wisdom and cosmic powers.

"When we want to annihilate any psychological defect, lust, for example, or any other, we should first of all comprehend it."

YES, THERE IS A HELL, A DEVIL AND KARMA, 1973

During meditation, the pluralized I always does the opposite [what we do]. It enjoys fornicating when we try to comprehend lust; it creates thunder and lightning in any of the forty-nine subconscious levels of Yaldabaoth when we try to comprehend anger, it covets not being covetous when we wish to reduce covetousness to dust. Inner self-remembering is the complete awareness of the entire subconscious processes in oneself, of the ego, of the pluralized "I"

THE BUDDHA'S NECKLACE, 1967

Now, if we forget ourselves before a person of the opposite sex, what would happen? We could end up fornicating, right? Or committing adultery. So, therefore, one [must] never forget oneself. If we forget ourselves, for example, before an insulter, surely we also end up insulting, even exchanging blows with the insulter.

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · GNOSTIC DISCIPLINE FOR AWAKENING · Interview – Mexico City –1970

Very well, but then we have to work on ourselves, right? The most important point you must reflect on tonight is that one must never forget himself. For example, if you forget yourself in the presence of a glass, you end up having a thousand drinks. If one forgers oneself in the presence of a person of the opposite sex, one ends up fornicating. If one forgets oneself in the presence of an insulter, one ends up insulting.

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · THE BINARY SERPENTINE POWER

Suddenly, we find ourselves in front of a person of the opposite sex, we identify very much with that person and, in the long run, we end up in fornication or adultery. It means that person of the opposite sex got the better of us: they initiated our psychological processes, controlled them, submitted them to their will. Is this freedom?

THE FIFTH GOSPEL · IDENTITY, VALUES AND IMAGE · Public Conference – July 1977

What is a fornicator? A person who lets himself be governed, by whom? By the psyche of others and who commits horrible crimes, who sins against himself. What is a drunkard? A mechanical entity who lets himself be governed by others. He is offered a glass of wine and he abandons his best intentions, he gets drunk and commits all kinds of nonsense, why? Because he has no true conscious individuality. What is an angry person? A person whom others control: it only takes others to tell him an offensive word for him to immediately react violently. What is an envious person? A poor victim, of whom? Of others. It only takes others to show him their nice car or beautiful house that they bought and he's dying of envy. What is a jealous person? A victim of others, others play with him. If a woman wants to see him suffer, it is sufficient for her to take a good look at the neighbor for him to immediately die of jealousy. This is to say, that he does not have an authentic individuality; they play with him; he is totally weak.

Master: How does it disappear in the adulterer, the one who has it here? Well, by dissolving the "I's" of adultery and paying the corresponding karma, because, unquestionably, all classes of sins will be forgiven except the sin against the Holy Spirit –sex is the force of the Holy Spirit–. Any offense against the Holy Spirit is not forgiven.

The Fifth Gospel ·Lunar Psychism and Solar Psychism ·Second Chamber – Mexico City – 1976

Nevertheless, there is a time for everything. The igneous contact of such a frightful sexual passion initiates a gesture of intense terror in the hero of this Wagnerian drama.. Parsifal Unveiled, 1970

The best comes afterwards: The hero evokes the remembrance of the sacred Cup and the divine blood shed by the sin. Thus, heroically, he rejects Kundry, the Wagnerian Magdalene who dreadfully wallows, lying on her flowery couch, agitated by the most tremendous lust...

A PRACTICE

Study, most beloved ones. Practice meditation in all of the Lumisials, and also individually. The Gnostic Lumisials must become meditation centers. Practice, dissolve the 'I,', dearest ones; pray, transmute your sexual secretions into light and fire; fight untiringly to open more and more Lumisials everywhere. You have an established conduct in the Lumisials, but within this conduct you must include at least one hour of group meditation. Remember that group meditation forms a formidable magnetic vortex, which, by means of cosmic magnetization, will have the power to attract towards you a certain very necessary type of divine force.

Christmas Messages, 1952-66

Let no one then, call themselves chaste: "Whoever feels sure, let him look behind and not fall."

Yes, There Is a Hell, a Devil and Karma, 1973

Master: Sure, and right now I will finish illustrating it to you. Today I mentioned part of an experience that I lived, but now I want to narrate it in a complete way. Many, many years ago, in truth –and I am going to repeat the narration and extend what I have already narrated in the meeting we had here earlier–I was failing all the trials in relation to chastity.

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactic Synopsis of Mystical Death

So, my senses were absolutely cultivated –if you observe the way I use my sight, you will realize that it is cultivated–. Naturally, under these conditions, chastity was absolute as far as the physical world was concerned. I also cultivated the word in an extraordinary way; I did not let any lustful or double meaning words, etc. to flow in the verb. And in that way, everything was correct. But in the Superior Worlds of Cosmic Consciousness the question was very serious, extremely serious.

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactic Synopsis of Mystical Death

They submitted me to rigorous trials of chastity and I failed, despite all my systems of psychological control, despite all my psychological judo, despite all my techniques. It was enough for them to put around me a broom wearing a skirt, to immediately make me "go after her", even if she was a very horrible poor old woman, it did not matter; what was important was that she had a skirt.

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactic Synopsis of Mystical Death

The matter was serious. I felt very sad. I resorted to Krishnamurti's system of "integral comprehension and discernment". The system of meditation was profound, I was trying to discern the process of lust, the process of desire; I wanted to comprehend to be able to eliminate, but everything turned out to be useless. After a day of terrible work on myself, I was failing again the trials of chastity. For that reason, I was suffering frighteningly.

Well, one of those many days, I was lying on the floor on my back, with my head to the north, immersed in profound meditation with the intention of being able to discern and comprehend the process of lust in all the levels of the mind –a completely Krishnamurtian system, mixed with that terrible system, also monastery-like, of even whipping myself–.

I became skinny and horrible; I had no sexual relations of any kind, so that abstinence was absolute. In such conditions, I should have been victorious in all the trials of chastity; but everything was useless.

The Fifth Gospel · Didactic Synopsis of Mystical Death

Many years ago, I was dealing with an Ego of lust. Finding myself out of the dense form, I was subjected to multiple tests of chastity but at that time I failed. In the physical world, I was always victorious. I had an ascetic behavior: total control of the senses and the mind. But outside the body, it changed. When I was subjected to tests, something would come to my mind: an ancient "I" of lasciviousness, and then I failed lamentably.

The Fifth Gospel · The Wonders of Awakened Consciousness · Public Lecture – 1975

I appealed to the systems of Krishnamurti and Gurdjieff: in-depth, profound comprehension, through inner meditation; to try, through meditation, to comprehend the process of lasciviousness, of lust. Unquestionably, the power of discernment, delving deeper, became extremely penetrating; It was like the surgeon's scalpel trying to take out the root of a cancerous tumor; but everything was useless.

One of those days, in profound meditation, I was trying to discern what the process of lust is, trying to understand what that "I" is –according to the systems of Gurdjieff, Nicoll, Krishnamurti and many, many others– when, to my disgrace, an unusual phenomenon happened to me: because the concentration was too penetrating, I left the physical body and entered the world that we would call astral. Then I found myself inside a luxurious mansion, caressing a lady, loving her, wooing her, etc.; exactly the opposite of what I was trying to do, the antithesis, as if, by stubborn opposition, that terrible "I" wanted to totally destroy my work.

The Fifth Gospel · The Wonders of Awakened Consciousness · Public Lecture – 1975

Be chaste in thought, word and deed.

The Aquarian Message, 1960

But when the sword was approaching my chest, I felt a strange movement inside the Superior Existential Bodies of the Being, and something came out of me: I observed and saw, yes, that inhuman psychic aggregate. The sword, which was directed against me, was diverted, and it turned to aim against that aggregate. Finally, it rushed into the entrails of the world and I was free. Since then, I have been victorious in all the tests related to chastity.

I observed it in detail: it was an "I", the "I" of lust, a psychic aggregate that I myself had created because of a mistake of a romantic and sexual type, sometime during the Middle Ages, and now I found myself face to face with my own creation. That monster took the form of a beast, of a horse. But something unusual happens: the Executioner, instead of continuing to point his sword at me, now directs it toward that horse, toward that beast. Then I saw with astonishment how that beast threw itself head first into the Tartarus, into the Infernal Worlds. The Guardian had sent it to the Kingdom of Pluto for it to disintegrate there.

Of course, I was free of such an infernal psychic aggregate, and when I was submitted to new trials in the matter of chastity, I came out victorious, and I continued to come out victorious and I never failed again. Since then I attained complete chastity.

The Fifth Gospel ·Didactic Synopsis of Mystical Death

Then I see with mystical surprise a lustful, terribly perverse demon, that on coming out of my body through the dorsal spine takes up the form of a horse that neighs...

A PRACTICE

I invite you to reflect and to investigate this matter in a clear and perfect manner. When we want to annihilate any psychological defect, lust, for example, or any other, we should first of all comprehend it.

Yes, There Is a Hell, a Devil and Karma, 1973

To see the Ego as a representation would be to fall into a vicious circle, a kind of self-deception. What we are interested in is dissolving that which we are feeling, that which is thinking inside us at a given moment, that which at one moment is offending another, that which at one moment is feeling lust, that which is burning in our flesh in an instant of lasciviousness. That is what must be disintegrated. We need to be practical. It is not a question of us forming representations of the Ego, but of self-observing ourselves psychologically and disintegrating it.

The Fifth Gospel ·The Danger of Mental Effigies ·Third Chamber – Mexico City – June 1977

A PRACTICE

The voluntary processes of the dissolution of the "I", here and now, are very interesting. At the beginning we should eliminate the weaknesses of the humanoid; then continue by dissolving or disintegrating all those animal or bestial a that we carry within and much later on, it is indispensable to work with the double-edged axe of the ancient mysteries to crush and reduce to dust the vegetable-like memories of all the lust and morbidities of the past.

But if you observe all the excuses they give, you will realize that they have only one cause, one reason: to justify. Because, of course, Maithuna implies, in fact, a terrible series of super-efforts, and the animal Ego does not like that kind of super-efforts, and much less when it comes to the terrain of pleasure. The animal Ego wants to continue enjoying lust, fornication. What does the Ego do then? It finds an excuse: "That this is very dangerous; that you should not enter this path."

Master: All that about "what one remembers" sounds incoherent, vague, imprecise, odorless, tasteless, unsubstantial, colorless to me. Let us think with exactitude: which defect have you just discovered in your practical life? If you are alert and vigilant like a sentry in times of war, you must have discovered a defect. Which one have you just discovered? In which situation have you been involved lately? Did you have a word of anger? Did you have an impulse of lust? What was the last one you discovered? What situations were you in: was it at home, was it in a bar? Where was it? What happened to you? Or are you sleeping?

The Fifth Gospel · Didactics for Buddhist Annihilation · Conference at the end of the Missionary Course – Guadalajara, Jalisco. Mexico – From June 15 to August 30. 1976

A PRACTICE

Do you believe that you do not have the "I" of lust within your interior? Do you think that this woman, discredited by her scandals and lasciviousness, is perverse? Are you sure that the lasciviousness and perversity that you see in that woman does not exist within your interior? It would be better to observe yourself intimately, and while in profound meditation you may occupy the place of that woman you despise.

Treatise of Revolutionary Psychology, 1975

A PRACTICE

Then we shall exclaim: "But what is this "I" doing?" "Is it saying?" "What does it want?" "Why does it torment me with its lust, with its anger?" etc.

Treatise of Revolutionary Psychology, 1975

A PRACTICE

Continuing with these analyses, having any "I" discovered –let us say an "I" of lust–, then we will have to judge it, criticize it, analyze it; we will have to resort to the scalpel of self-criticism to open it up, so as to see what is true in it, and once we have fully comprehended it –an indispensable function for the emancipation of the Consciousness– then we will have to disintegrate it, annihilate it. For this, it is urgent to appeal to a power that is superior to the mind. Fortunately, that power exists. I want to refer emphatically to the power of the Divine Mother Kundalini, the Igneous Serpent of our magic powers.

The Fifth Gospel · The Problem of Psychological Multiplicity

A PRACTICE

We see in this case: the woman who went with another and left the poor man in a bad way; an act of adultery, of course, we can give it that title and really that is what it is. In the new existence, she returns and meets her man, and surely the same drama will be repeated; soon the third will appear in the discord. What to do so that it does not repeat itself? Well, we would have to put an end to the "I" of adultery, disintegrate it, turn it into dust; we would have to meditate on it, to concentrate on our own Cosmic Mother, to beg her to reduce it to ashes. By doing that, there is no more adultery. What if so-and-so appears? There is no problem because she does not want to adulterate anymore; and that is as far as the repetition went.

The Fifth Gospel · Structure of the Gnostic Missionary · 1st International Council of S. – Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico – From October 27 to November 4, 1976

A PRACTICE

Let us not say my 'I' has envy, hatred, jealousy, anger, lust, etc., it is best to not divide ourselves, it is better to say: I have envy, hatred, jealousy, anger, lust, etc. When we study the Sacred Books of India, we become enthusiastic thinking on the Supreme Brahatman and in the union of Atman with Brahatman; but really, as long as a psychological 'I' with its sophisms of distraction exists, we will be unable to achieve the bliss of uniting ourselves with the Universal Spirit of Life. Once the 'I' is dead, the Universal Spirit of Life is in us like the flame in the lamp.

The Revolution of the Dialectic

A PRACTICE

If the man wants to disintegrate a psychic aggregate, whether it be of hatred, lust, jealousy, etc., he will clamor to the Divine Mother Kundalini imploring her to disintegrate such an aggregate, and his wife will help him with the same supplication, as if the aggregate were hers. The man will also proceed in this manner with the psychic aggregates of the woman, taking them as his own.

The Revolution of the Dialectic

A PRACTICE

If the man wants to disintegrate a psychic aggregate, whether it be hatred, lust, jealously, etc., he will pray to the Divine Mother Kundalini, begging Her for the disintegration of the psychic aggregate. His wife will help him with the same prayer, as if the aggregate was her own.

The Aquarian Message, 1960

The Buddha's Necklace, 1967

There are people who are totally chaste on an intellectual level but are awful fornicators in the various subconscious regions of the mind. Fornication generally disguises itself with a compliment to a girl passing by on the street, or with a very serious "gossipy" conversation with a person of the opposite sex, or with the pretext of love of beauty, etc.

The Buddha's Necklace, 1967

Any fornicator can utilize beautiful words and express beautiful thoughts without causing the least bit of an impression in those who listen to him. However, the chaste person, even when he lacks beautiful language, can enchant an auditorium with his words, because all of his movements and mannerisms, words and looks carry the power of OJAS.

The Aquarian Message, 1960

Absolute chastity is only possible when the Ego is very well dead. Chastity is the foundation of sanctity.

The Greater Mysteries, 1956

Whosoever reaches this height is a liberated one, a Lord of the living and of the dead. Everyone who walks on the path of christification must develop these eight powers. These powers of the heavenly Jerusalem are conquered with internal meditation, with the condition of absolute chastity.

Dearly beloved, look around you: the rose saturated in love transmutes the mud of the earth into the exquisite fragrance of its' miraculous petals. So, dear children, be as the rose: transmute desire into love. When desire is transmuted into love, it dissolves the 'I', the self, the ego, and the Christ Child of Bethlehem comes to us. That is the Christmas of the Heart. That is the reunion of the soul with God. All religions want to unite the soul with God.

The Arcanum number 7, "Triumph", is attained through great struggles and bitterness. We see this in the Seven Capital which we must transmute into Seven Virtues; in the transmutation of the seven inferior metals into Pure Gold.

The lady who kissed him represented Isis, the Divine Mother, and she kissed him upon the brow as if to say to him; "the hour has arrived for you to work with the Sacred Serpent". To become Gods, the fire must be stolen from the Devil, from the He-Goat by means of the transmutation of the base metals into gold. This is the mystery of the Alchemy; that He Goat must be eliminated. Each defect must be changed, killed, and a virtue born. Hence the motive of the phrase "Solve et Coagula". The Gods arise from the abyss and are lost in the Absolute.

We put her to the test in the Superior Worlds and she proved to be terribly chaste, with the right to use "the white tunic". I saw her passing through Paris heading for the gallows: heroically, with her head held very high. She owed nothing, she had nothing to fear. She gave her life for France; they never knew how to appreciate her as she really deserved.

If one eliminates, for example, the defect or the "I" of anger, in its place the virtue of serenity will crystallize in our human person. If one eliminates the defect of selfishness, in its place the wonderful virtue of altruism will crystallize in our human person. If one eliminates the defect of lust, in its place the extraordinary virtue of chastity will crystallize in our soul. If one eliminates hatred from his nature, in its place love will crystallize in our personality. If one eliminates from the personality, for example, the defect of envy, in its place the joy for the good of others, philanthropy, etc. will crystallize in the human person.

The Fifth Gospel ·The Exercise of Self-knowledge

When one breaks and disintegrates completely the psychic aggregate of lust –or the aggregates, because they are many–, that precious virtue of the soul known as chastity crystallizes in the Essence that we carry within. When one succeeds in destroying, annihilating the psychic aggregate of hatred, then the precious virtue of love crystallizes in one. When one manages to reduce to cosmic dust the psychic aggregate of selfishness, then the precious virtue of altruism or of "christ-centrism" crystallizes in one. When one manages to annihilate the psychic aggregate of pride, then the ineffable virtue of humility crystallizes in us.

For example, we could not acquire the virtue of chastity, if we do not disintegrate the defect of lust. We could not acquire the virtue of meekness, if we do not eliminate from ourselves the defect of resentment. We could not acquire the virtue of altruism, if we do not eliminate the defect of selfishness.

The Fifth Gospel · Gnostic Psychology of False Feelings · Third Chamber – Mexico City – May 4. 1977

In order to have the virtue of meekness, one has to eliminate the "I's" of anger that is a legion, and this is long and hard work. In order to have the virtue of chastity, you have to eliminate the "I's" of lust, and this is serious labor, more bitter than gall, which lasts a lifetime and even several lives. In order to have the virtue of tolerance, one has to eliminate the "I" of intolerance, and this is a costly, terrible work. The imitated virtues are fake stones, they are not real. Only true virtues are authentic, legitimate, true stones.

> This river of eternal water of life is the Christonic Semen. Those who long to rise through the three steps of imagination, inspiration and intuition must wash their sins with the pure waters of life. Because without chastity, nobody attains any progress in these studies. "In the midst of the Street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, (the ten Sephiroth) which bare twelve manner of fruits, (twelve faculties) and yielding her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations". Then, nobody will utilize their powers for evil doing. Whosoever has risen through the three steps of imagination, inspiration and intuition moves himself consciously in his internal vehicles, thus visiting the superior worlds.

About this booklet. Corrected October 2026. Earlier versions of this booklet gave some of the Master's early passages on awakening the Kundalini without noting his later teaching that it awakens only through the couple. Notes now sit beneath those passages, and our own headings have been put right. With thanks to the reader who pointed it out.

How this was made. Fifty-two books were fetched and extracted, and indexed as 73,105 paragraphs and 2,157,671 words. They were swept on two halves — the vice (lust, lascivious, lewd, concupiscence, fornication, adultery and their forms) and its opposite (chastity, chaste, continence, incontinence, brahmacharya) — and that returned 1881 candidate paragraphs in 51 books, by far the largest sweep of this project. Every one was read and judged, and 410 are printed here; a further 724 were judged worth keeping and did not reach a section.

This work was signed off on forty-eight books and is built on fifty-two. Its first classification, made on 28 August 2026 — 1,290 candidates, 684 kept — was held in a workspace that no longer exists, and both volumes of The Fifth Gospel had not yet been added to the corpus. The sweep was therefore run again from nothing. The Fifth Gospel is now the largest single source in it: 79 of these passages, from 30 named lectures.

Transmutation was left out, and then put back. The first build of this page kept it out on the ground that the sexual method is Alchemy's, which is true of the method and false of this word: transmute is not a step of the procedure, it is his name for what chastity does. The editor overruled the exclusion the same day — "it's ok that things overlap if they are necessary to get the teachings across" — and she was right. The family stands in 591 paragraphs of which only 19 already carried a word of this work; the other 572 were read and judged one by one in a second pass, under a brief that says plainly that overlap with Alchemy is allowed where the teaching needs it and that only the bare apparatus is refused — the metals, the elixirs, the philosophical Mercury, the laboratory. That pass added 290 printed passages and 31 of the practices, among them every one this work has for a reader with no spouse.

The bare method is still out, and the distinction is worth stating. maithuna, sahaja, semen, seminal, ejaculation, orgasm, copulation, coitus, pranayama, kundalini, chakra stand in thousands of paragraphs carrying no word of this work at all; admitting them would drag the laboratorium, the three principles, the posture and the solar bodies into a work about a vice.

Four more families were admitted, sampled and thrown out before anything was judged. Passion stands in 444 paragraphs and 387 of them carry no word of this work — the Passion of Christ, passionate jealousy, and all our desires and passions, which belongs to Desire and Will. Whore, harlot and prostitution are in 156 and are almost entirely Babylon the Great Whore, his figure for this humanity. Erotic is in 104, and his erotic is usually the positive one — "the erotic instinct is that extraordinary and marvellous agent which can transform us radically". And continent is the old false friend of this work: he writes constantly about Atlantis and Lemuria.

The judging was done in twenty-three slices, each by its own reader, each writing its own file and verifying its own range, and the merge then asserted complete, duplicate-free coverage of all 1881 before anything was built. That safeguard exists because of this work: during its first build a session claimed nine slices were classified when five were, and wrote two files reconstructed from memory. Nothing was built from them, but nothing in the method would have caught it. No judgement is made in a chat reply.

Nineteen paragraphs were set aside for the editor and not judged — his writing on homosexuality and lesbianism — so that the decision on them could be made by her on the passages themselves rather than on anyone's summary. Three are printed: the two accounts of a teacher who preached chastity and privately abused the people who trusted him, and one statement of the Lilith and Nahemah doctrine. The other sixteen are not: four are the same Lilith passage said again in another book, and twelve are lists in which the word appears among ten others and nothing whatever is taught about it — the rule every work in this series uses. All nineteen are named in the build record.

Not one silent correction was needed — the third work of the series running. These 410 passages stand exactly as the books have them. The only thing done to any of them is the line-break rule: a word broken across the end of a line reaches this page 134 times, more than in any other work here, because The Fifth Gospel is set in two narrow columns and hyphenates constantly. One rule closes them and it never invents a letter.

Forty-two of his sentences had been cut in half by the paragraph index and were closed again against the books themselves: a passage that ended without terminal punctuation took the next paragraph, and one that opened on a lower-case letter took the one before, until the sentence closed where he closed it. Three more the rule could not reach are set by hand and given their reason in the build record — among them a paragraph that ends in the scanner's comma rather than his full stop, which sent the rule running on into a chapter heading.

Three hundred and eighty-five paragraphs were never offered to the sweep. 247 are the places where his transcribers marked that the tape had lost words or could not make them out; the other 138 are not his at all — the editors' front matter and the volumes' own contents and index.

Checked three ways. Every passage was proved to stand word for word in the raw extraction of its own PDF; the text printed here was proved equal to those paragraphs; and the text was pulled back out of the finished booklets and proved to contain all 410 of them. No failures.

36 passages also stand in another work of the series, and each is marked.

Let no one call themselves chaste
