

The Law of Destiny

The destiny each one brings into the world and the Archons who keep its book; the accidents that are no one's destiny; why karma is not fatalism; the Fate of the Pistis Sophia; and the conscious will that alters destiny, in his own words, from all fifty-two books

Samael Aun Weor · in his own words

Every word here is his. Nothing has been paraphrased, joined or improved. Each passage was cut out of the book it belongs to by reference, and each carries that book and the paragraph it came from (and, where he was speaking rather than writing, the name of the lecture with the place and the year the volume records for it), so anything on this page can be found again in the source.

The first part is destiny itself. In a lecture he puts it plainly: "each one is born with a destiny". It is written in a book, kept by the Archons of Destiny under Anubis, and it reaches as far as the end: "the Angels of Death cut the Thread of Life on a precise day and hour".

The second part is the other law. "Certainly many accidents are a result of destiny but not all accidents are a result of destiny." And in the Pistis Sophia commentary: "Millions of creatures are found trapped within the Law of Accidents."

The third part refuses fatalism. "Karma is the law of compensation, not of vengeance." The stars and the horoscope incline; they do not settle what the Masters can modify.

The fourth part is the Fate of the Pistis Sophia, the words of Jesus to Mary and Philip set beside his commentary, which says the Intimate Christ "can change within ourselves the paths and courses of the Fate".

The last part is the way out. "There are three types of actions": by accident, by recurrence, and by the conscious will. "Whosoever truly possesses free willpower can originate new circumstances." And so, "It is possible to alter our own destiny", because "We ourselves are the creators of our own destiny."

THREE TYPES OF ACTION

There are three types of actions

THE COSMIC SCALE

It is possible to alter our own destiny

Part One – One brings one's own destiny

1 Each one is born with a destiny

Destiny is carried in from past existences: inheritance is its vehicle, the totemists knew it as the fruit of karma, and some are born on a feather bed while others are born into misfortune. The lectures add that destiny is the repetition of previous acts, carried by the I's that survive death, and a meditation is given for tracing a present joy or pain back to its cause in an earlier life.

These three factors can be positive or negative. They are positive when they manifest themselves as upright thoughts, upright feelings, and upright actions. They are negative when they manifest themselves as criminal thoughts, criminal feelings, and criminal actions. Let us study these three factors separately. Inheritance is the vehicle of Karma, nemesis, or law of destiny. Here, we are not asking you to believe; you may not believe in it. However, what we need is to analyze and to profoundly delve into the distinct innerdepths of the mind. Concerning beliefs, to say, "I believe or I do not believe," is proper for ignorant people. We are mathematicians in our scientific investigations and very demanding in our analysis and our expression. Death is a subtraction operation. When such an arithmetic operation is finished, only the values remain. These values are what continue.

It has happened many times, cases of saints reincarnating among bandits and vice versa. When this happens, it is the law of destiny adjusting accounts.

The totemists profoundly know the law of Karma, and know that the destiny of every human being is the result of the Karma from past lives.

The Perfect Matrimony, 1966

A PRACTICE

Every moment of happiness or pain should be continued in Meditation with a Still mind and in profound Silence. The result comes to be the experience of the same event in a previous life. We then become conscious of the cause of the act, whether it be pleasant or unpleasant.

Esoteric Treatise of Hermetic Astrology, 1967

Karma is a medicine which is given for our own good; unfortunately, instead of people bowing reverently before the eternal living God, they protest, blaspheme, justify themselves, foolishly excuse themselves and, as Pilate, wash their hands. With such protests the Karma is not modi fied; on the contrary, it becomes harder and more severe. When one comes to this world, one brings one's own destiny; some are born on a feather bed, others in misfortune. If in our past existence we killed, now they kill us, if we wounded, now we are wounded, if we stole, now we are robbed, and "by the rod with which we measure others, so we will be measured."

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

Each soul is the author of his own destiny.

Beyond Death

Each soul is the author of his own destiny. If one does good, then he receives good fortune, and if he does evil works, he is reborn in this world to suffer and pay everything he owes. Now it will be understood why some are born on a bed of feathers and others into misfortune.

Beyond Death

Three matrimonial bonds exist: the first karmic, the second dharmic, and the third cosmic. The first is of pain, misery, famine, bareness, misfortune; the second is of success, joy, love, economic progress, etc.; and the third is solely for select, pure, holy souls, and it brings, as is natural, inexhaustible happiness. This case about which you have asked me, I must say, belongs to the first order of those matrimonial conditions (karmic). There is no doubt that your son and his first wife suffered the unspeakable, paying for the bad actions of their previous lives; it is clear that in their former lives they were also husband and wife, but they did much wrong, they did not know how to live, and the result was pain. The new marriage of your son was benign from the economic point of view; we can catalogue it as being of good fortune, dharmic, we could say, the result of good works of previous lives. The second wife also lived with him in past lives and since he observed better conduct with her, the result is that now he has changed his fate, he made his life better, that's all.

The soul is not a prisoner, however, for it can enter and leave the maternal womb and its body at will. After nine months, the soul is born with a new child's body. If in the previous reincarnation we did much evil, then in the following one it is our turn to suffer the consequences, and we are born with very bad luck.

The Mysteries of Life and Death

So, each one is born with a destiny, and this destiny is formed by the Law of Recurrence. To say that the Law of Recurrence is based, precisely, on the Law of Return, is a fact. We all return to repeat our previous acts, destiny is the repetition of our previous acts. The repetition of our previous acts constitutes the mechanics of our own destiny.

Life is an incessant repetition of occurrences, of events: the destiny of human beings is precisely due to the "I's". Let us suppose that in the past existence, at the age of 30, we had a love affair. The "I" of this adventure, due to the fact of having participated in it, unquestionably, will continue to exist after death.

11 The head of the Archons of Destiny

Destiny has its keepers. Anubis, the jackal-headed god, heads the judges and archons of destiny; the Archons join the thread of life to the seed at conception, each creature's lot is written in the Book of the Zodiac, and the awakened disciple can leave the body to read his own book in the Temple of Anubis. In grave need the four angels of the cardinal points, who govern human destiny, may be invoked with their incenses.

A temple of the Lords of Karma exists in the subtle world and the jackal is great chief of these judges of destiny. This great Being is supreme Judge of the Cosmic Tribunal; he has the appearance of a great man with the head of a jackal.

A PRACTICE

Whoever awakens consciousness can travel with his internal bodies out side of the physical body with complete conscious will and study his own book of destiny in the Temple of Anubis and his fo rty two Judges. The head of the priests of the Tribunal of Karma is the great Master Anubis. The Temple of Anubis, the supreme regent of karma is found in the molecular world, called by many, the astral world. In that tribunal only rules the terror of love and justice. There, exists a book for each one with the debts and credits. Each day one's good and bad actions are meticulously noted in it. Good acts are represented by strange coins which the Masters accumulate in favour of the men and women who perform them. Defence lawyers are also to be found in that tribunal; however, everything is paid for, nothing is obtained as a gift. He who has good works pays, and comes off well in the dealings. Credit solicited is paid for with unselfish works, inspired by love for those who suffer.

The Count Cagliostro invoked the four saints or the four angels, who, situated in the four cardinal points of the earth, govern the entire destiny of human beings. There is no doubt that the Count Cagliostro also used incenses for this. He offered laurel to the genie of the light that lives in the Orient, myrtle to the angel of the Occident, incense to the king of the North and myrrh to the king of the South. In a case of grave necessity these four saints can be invoked, offering to each of them their corresponding incenses, asking them with all our heart for the help yearned for.

III His hour to be born, and his exact moment to die

The Angels of Death, working under Saturn and by the Law of Destiny, cut the silver cord on the day and hour appointed, and a funereal library holds the dates of all who must die. The teaching is then corrected: the Lords of Karma deposit cosmic values that can be spent or conserved, so good deeds lengthen a life and an intervention can postpone a death.

We accept that because of the Law of Destiny the child should not have died yet, but inevitably an intervention was needed, and it was the Virgin of Carmel who intervened.

BOOK OF THE VIRGIN OF CARMEL, 1952

All internal calculations, all internal additions are interpreted with these 22 Greater Arcanes. Jesus, the divine Master told one of our (female) disciples that she would have to remain incarnated, working in her work, 32 years more. This number is added between itself, and gives us Arcane 5 of the Tarot, the Law. In other words, that this sister will have to remain incarnated until she fulfills her destiny in accordance with the Law. The children of this perverse Luciferic humanity are conceived with Arcane 15 and die with Arcane 13.

THE GREATER MYSTERIES, 1956

In the fine arts building in Mexico, F.D., we find an Aztec sculpture of the Bat God. We are going to talk about it even if the tenebrous ones slander us and classify us as black magicians. This sculpture is a precious Aztec symbol of one of the principal hierarchs of death. The Angels of Death work under the influence of Saturn and disembody the souls according to the Law of Karma. Their symbols are the bat, the owl and the scythe. They take the soul out of the body and cut the silver cord that unites the soul to the body. During sleep, souls can travel anywhere and return to the body thanks to the silver cord. When the Angels of Death are working, they adopt a skeletal appearance; after their work, they assume a beautiful appearance; they are really Angels.

The Angels of Life give a human being a vital body so that he may live. The Angels of Death take life from a human being. They do this by cutting the "Silver Cord". This cord corresponds to the umbilical cord and it is sevenfold in its inner constitution. The Angels of Life connect the molecular body of the disincarnated person with the zoosperm, so that it acquires a new body. In fact, the Silver Cord is the thread of life which the Angels of Death break on the appropriate day and at the right time, in accordance with the Law of Destiny. This marvellous thread belongs to the superior dimensions of space and can only be seen with the spatial sense.

The Book of the Dead, 1965

The Angels of Death have their temples in the Molecular World; they also have their grades, and their palaces and libraries. There in the immensity of the great ocean of life there exists a funereal palace where one of the imperial genies of death has its dwelling place; its face is that of an ineffable maiden and its body like that of a man. This MARVELLOUS being is totally androgynous. This MARVELLOUS being is a DIVINE HERMAPHRODITE. Thousands of Angels of Death work under its direction. In its library there are thousands of molecular volumes where the Karmic names and dates of all those who must die are written, each with its own day and time according to the law of destiny. The science of death is terribly Divine.

The Book of the Dead, 1965

Despite their spectral, skeletal figure (with a scythe held in the right hand and dressed in funeral attire) these Ministers of Death have a terribly divine appearance indeed. According to the Law of Destiny, the Angels of Death cut the Thread of Life on a precise day and hour.

The Solar Bodies, 1968

According to the Law of Destiny, the Angels of Death cut the Thread of Life on a precise day and hour.

The Solar Bodies, 1968

The dying usually sees the Angel of Death. They, when working, dress in funeral garb and take on a spectral, skeletal appearance, grasping the scythe with which they cut the Silver Cord. They assume this gloomy appearance only whilst working, apart from this they adopt very beautiful forms, at times of children, at times of ladies or of venerable elders. The Angels of Death are never evil or perverse; they always work in accordance with the Great Law. Each one has his hour to be born, and his exact moment to die. The Angels of Death are very wise. They develop and operate under the Ray of Saturn. They know not only all that which is related to the common place and normal death of the physical body; these ministers of death are, as well, profoundly wise in all that which is related with the Death of the pluralised "I".

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

07

The Blessed Goddess Mother Death has the power to punish us when we violate the Law and authority to take our life. She is, indubitably, only one magnificent facet of our Mystic Dyad; a splendid form of our own Being. Without her consent no Angel of Death would dare to break the thread of life, the Silver Cord, the Antakarana.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

07

In relation to the first aspect, all the texts of occultism, pseudo-occultism, pseudoRosicrucianism, and Theosophy state that one is born at a determined day, hour and second and dies at a determined day, hour and second according to the Law of Destiny. This concept is not exact because the Lords of Karma deposit within one, determined "Cosmic Values". One can conserve that

"Capital" and the lifespan can be greatly increased, or the values can be spent and the life shortened.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

07

In accumulating cosmic capital the life is prolonged. If there are no good deeds, it is only in particular cases that the Lords of Karma will prolong the life.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

07

It is due to the Law of Destiny. Parents who need to pass through this hard lesson, who, in previous lives, were cruel to their children, progress with this suffering, they learn to love.

Beyond Death

At the moment in which the dying exhales his last breath, an angel of death attends the deathbed; there are legions of them. The funerary angel cuts the silver cord or thread of life, which connects the soul with the physical body. The dying often sees such an angel in a spectral form, and the scythe that he appears with is certainly real; this tool serves precisely so that this Deity may cut the thread of existence.

Beyond Death

Then, after the doctor left, the poor woman who accompanies me shouts some cries of pain; she implores Saint Peter and Saint Paul and all the saints of heaven, but to no avail because it was my time to disembody. Someone pulls me by the waist, I see myself again: he is the Angel of Death; He cuts the silver cord with his sickle, and there I am without a body, disembodied in the astral world. End of a long and hard life.

IV That is the clock of destiny

A petition to the higher worlds is granted only when karma allows. Otherwise the angels answer by showing a clock, and the hour on its face is the answer the disciple must learn to read.

They grant what we ask for, when Karma allows it. However, if our petition is not granted, then Uriel will show the disciple "the clock of destiny" and, in this case, we have no other option but to bow down our head before the verdict of the Law. In the actual world, there is a great number of schools that try to accomplish these same "miracles" by mental force, without taking into account at all, the approval of the Lords of Destiny. That is simply, pure and legitimate black magic. The Christ-mind works well with the law. Black mental waves do not arrive where they are sent because a multitude of aerial "elementals", that trap and intercept their path, exist in the subtle world. Innumerable forces, which divert or disintegrate destructive mental waves, also exist in space. Therefore, evil waves can only cause harm when the victim does not know how to love nor forgive.

Part Two – The Law of Accidents

6 PASSAGES

1 Not all accidents are a result of destiny

A newspaper report of a legless man killed on the road claimed his death had been written. Against it the law of destiny is set apart from the law of accidents: some accidents are destiny, most road accidents come of imprudence, and no horoscope holds them all.

> In a Mexican daily paper we saw an article called "IT WAS HIS DESTINY TO DIE CRUSHED ON THE ROAD."

THE SOCIAL CHRIST

> The text of the article said; "A half-man – he didn't have legs, only 2 pathetic stumps – consequence of being hit by a train some time ago, who in life was called Fernando Contreras Moran was converted into a bloody mass when he was run over last night on the corner of Claudio Bernard Street and Dr Barragan Street by a heavy vehicle driven by a drunk called Manuel ZamudioMartinez who has been detained in the 6th Delegation."

> "From what can be seen the destiny of this man was marked. Twenty years ago a train had amputated his legs when he fell under its wheels on the track at Tlalpan"

THE SOCIAL CHRIST

It is absurd to say in a prophetic tone that all accidents figure in our horoscope and that destiny is their secret cause.

THE SOCIAL CHRIST

> "And not far away from where that first terrible accident occurred was where he met with his frightful end."

07

Thus finishes the text of the fatal article. The journalist plays PROPHET and mentions the law of destiny, believing the destiny of this unhappy man was to die broken in pieces. We DO NOT negate the LAW of cause and effect but it is difficult for a simple journalist to know if this type of tragedy is the result of the law of destiny or the law of accidents. It is absurd to say in a prophetic tone that all accidents figure in our horoscope and that destiny is their secret cause.

The Social Christ

Certainly many accidents are a result of destiny but not all accidents are a result of destiny. In reality 99% of road accidents are a product of imprudence. It seems incredible that a poor man like the fellow mentioned in this tragedy have not managed to alter even minimally the laws of transit and circulation. It is barely believable that that human society is so cruel and heartless. A life full of tragedy with such a fatal conclusion was not sufficient to move the heart of human society.

11 Millions of creatures are found trapped within the Law of Accidents

People cross the streets asleep, and one moment of forgetfulness is enough for a car. Such a death, like the sickness of the glutton or the drunk, is not charged to karma, and students are told to distinguish the two laws; in the infernal worlds chance rules outright, and many beings live under accident rather than under the Fate.

It is very true that people walk around the streets absorbed in their own thoughts. This is the cause of many accidents. We can't deny that humans are asleep and walk through the streets like sleepwalkers, profoundly dreaming. All this is very true but for this reason it is urgent to reform the transport systems.

The Social Christ

A PRACTICE

The drivers demand that the pedestrians walk around alert and vigilant in order to avoid accidents. That the drivers of vehicles wish for this is marvelous but the reality is distinct. All the world lives absorbed in his thoughts, everyone walks around dreaming. Even those that live more awake, who have learnt to be more prudent and take care when they cross the streets etc. have moments in which they don't remember that cars exist. One instant like this, one moment of forgetfulness is enough for us to fall under the wheels of a car.

The Social Christ

Unquestionably, we cannot blame everything on karma. As I say, the Law of Accidents exists. If we are not prudent, for example, it can happen that a car finishes us off on the street, and that is not the result of karma. If we overindulge in food, we eat more than we should, obviously, we can get sick; and karma is not to blame for that. If we take a few drinks and get drunk, karma is not responsible for that; it is us who have dedicated ourselves to drinking. If we hurt others, they can hurt us; if we insult others, then they insult us.

☆ Part Three – Not the blind mechanicalism

4 PASSAGES

1 Karma is the law of compensation, not of vengeance

Karma is refused as fatality or predetermination. Acts are shaped by inheritance, education and environment, yet free will remains to modify them, and the law can be negotiated because divinity is not without mercy.

Karma is the law of compensation, not of vengeance. There are some who confuse this cosmic law with detriment and even with fatality, believing that everything that happens to the human being in life is inexorably determined beforehand. It is true that the acts of the human being are determined by inheritance, education, and the environment. It is also true that the human being has free will and can modify his actions to educate his character, to form superior habits, to fight against weaknesses, to fortify virtues, etc. The Masters of Karma are conscious Judges that live in Jinn state. Whosoever in front of them has funds to pay his debts, he pays and does well in his affairs. We constantly have to perform good deeds in order to have funds to pay our debts of this life and our previous lives. All the actions of the human being are controlled by laws. Some laws are superior, others are inferior. All of the superior laws are resumed within love. This is why upon speaking of love, the Master Paul stated: "Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not, love vaunteth not itself is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoketh thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things." 1 Corinthians 13: 4-7 The Chief Priest of the Priests of the Tribunal of Karma is the great Master Anubis. Only the terror of love and justice reign in this Tribunal. In this temple, a book of debits and expenditures exists for each human being in which is written daily, in detail, good and evil actions. The good actions are represented by rare coins that the Masters accumulate on behalf of the men and women that perform these good deeds. Also in this Tribunal, defense lawyers are found. Yet, everything must be paid. Nothing is granted as a gift. The one who has good deeds pays and does well in his affairs. The Masters of Karma also grant credits to those who request them. The granted credits are paid with unrewarded good deeds that are inspired by love towards those who suffer.

Runic Magic, 1969

Fortunately, Karma is negotiable, this Law is not the blind mechanicalism of the Astrologers and Chiromancers of fairs.

Runic Magic, 1969

We have been given freedom, free will, and we can do as we wish. It is clear however, that we must answer to God for all of our acts. Any action in our life, good or bad, has its consequences. The law of action and consequence governs the course of our various existences, and each life is the result of the previous one.

Some pseudo-esoterists and pseudo-occultists have become excessively pessimistic in relation to the law of action and consequence; they mis takenly consider that it operates in a mechanical, automatic, and cruel ma nner. The erudites believe that it is not possible to alter the law; I am sincerely sorry, but I have to disagree with this manner of thinking. If the law of action and consequence, if the nemesis of existence were not negotiable, what then would remain of divine mercy? Frankly, I am unable to accept cruelty in divinity. The real, that which is complete per fection, that which has different names like Tao, Aum, INRI, Sein, Allah, Brahma, God, or better said, Gods, etc., etc., etc., could in no manner be something without mercy, cruel, tyrannical, etc. Due to all of the above, I emphatically repeat that Karma is negotiable.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

II The authentic horoscope of the human being

The stars incline but do not seal a life: the planetary genii can modify events however bad the aspects, the true horoscope is written in one's own body, and those who converse with the Gods need no arithmetic chart. The aspirant is to revolt against what the horoscope establishes, may change his planetary regent, and cannot read another's destiny before knowing his own through the death of the I.

Very well; thou know that every wheel has its axis, and because of this, thou will, therefore, understand that the base of motion resides at the center of every mass. Mass can only be dominated from its center and the center of all mass is the spirit. Due to this, we affirm that a heart temple, which is the dwelling of the genie of the star, exists in every sidereal center. These celestial genii are precisely the authentic governors of the infinite, and rulers and lords of our own human destinies.

Zodiacal Course, 1951

These forces are precisely the rays of the planetary genii, and these masters can modify all human events even when the horoscope is full of quadratures and oppositions. So that Arithmetic Astrology is not exact; for which reason I consider that one cannot be an authentic Astrologer without being a magician in Alchemy. Lamblichus, the great magician, invoked the planetary genii and materialized them in the physical world to talk to them, and it was through them that he accomplished his great marvels.

The absolute comprehension of these two golden rules allows us to neutralize the disastrous effects of all the quadratures and oppositions of our personal horoscope. This means that through these golden rules we can destroy Karma and we can triumph in life.

Zodiacal Course, 1951

A PRACTICE

There are two kinds of Kabbalists: intellectual Kabbalists and intuitive Kabbalists, The intellectual Kabbalists are black magicians; the intuitive Kabbalists are white magicians. The sidereal gods many times answer us by showing us a card of the Tarot; then we intuitively comprehend the answer that has been given to us. The intuitive Kabbalists, by merely looking at a card of the Tarot, comprehend what destiny reserves for them. On a certain occasion I consulted a genie about the convenience of making a trip, for which I was not prepared economically. The planetary genie showed me 3 cards. One of them was a King of diamonds, everything beautifully embroidered with gold; I understood with my heart and made my trip. Everything went very well.

Since it is a question of beliefs about the prophesizing of facts, fortunes, etc., I have to tell you that they are doing poorly. I repeat: it is not possible to know another's destiny if we do not know our own destiny and it is not possible to know our own destiny if we have not arrived at the awakening of the consciousness; this awakening proves to be impossible if the sinner "I" (our defects) has not previously died.

We cannot deny that the influences of the signs exist and manipulate us as long as the psychological revolution has not been carried out within us. But in the path of every student who aspires to enlightenment, one should begin by revolutionizing oneself against what the horoscopes establish.

That matter of one sign not being compatible with another sign is totally absurd, because what is not compatible are the egos, those undesirable elements which we carry within. The Astrology of these times of the end is not good for anything because it is pure business. The authentic Astrology of the Chaldean sages has already been forgotten. People – machines do not want to change because they say: "That is my sign, that is my zodiacal influence!", etc. I will never get tired of emphasizing that what is important is to change emotionally and mentally.

So one must not have that as a fixed rule, the fact that one cannot modify one's ascending planet. Study the astrological or zodiacal characteristics of each planet, identify with the planet you want, absorb those vibrations, and you will end up under its regency. Thus, one can change planetary regents whenever one wants.

1 Changed their Fate and their sphere

In the Pistis Sophia Jesus passes through the Fate, the second sphere, and changes its course so that it turns six months to the left and six to the right. The commentary places humanity inside that law, says Christ can free one from it, and draws the consequence for the horoscope-casters: their forecasts hold only where a person's Fate has not been altered.

> "And I left that region behind me and came to the gate of the second sphere, which is the Fate. Then were all its gates thrown into agitation and opened of themselves. And I entered into the houses of the Fate, shining most exceedingly, and there was no measure for the light that was about me, for I shone in the Fate forty-and-nine times more than in the [first] sphere."

Let them then declare unto thee from now on the deeds which the lord Sabaoth will do!' The power then which was in the prophet Isaiah, prophesied before thou didst come, that thou wouldst take away the power of the rulers of the Aeons and wouldst change their sphere and their Fate, in order that they might know not hing from now on. For this cause it hath said also: Ye shall then know not of what the Lord Sabaoth will do': that is, none of the rulers will know what thou wilt do from now on, - for they are 'Egypt', because they are matter. The power then which was in Isaiah, prophesied concerning thee aforetime, saying: 'From now on ye shall then know not what the Lord Sabaoth will do.' But now I have made them spend six months turned to the left and six months turned to the right. He who then shall find their reckoning from the time when I change them, setting them so as to spend six months facing towards their left and six months facing their right path, he who then shall observe them in this wise, will know their influences surely and will declare all things which they will do. In like manner also the consulters, if they invoke the names of the archons and chance on them facing the left, will tell [men] with accuracy all things concerning which they shall ask their decans. On the contrary, if the consulters invoke their names when they face to the right, they will not give ear unto them, because they are facing in another form compared with their former position in which Yew had established them: seeing that other are their names when they are turned to the left and other their names whey they are turned to the right. And if they invoke them whey they are turned to the right, they will not tell them the truth, but they will confound them with confusion and threaten them with threatening. Those then who do not know their path, when they are turned to the right, and their triangles and their squares and all their figures, will find nothing true, but will be confounded in great confusion and will find themselves in great delusion, because I have now changed the works which they effected aforetime in their squares, when turned to the left, and in their triangles and in their octagons, in which they were busied continuously turned to the left: and I have made them spend six months forming all their configurations turned to the right, in order that they may be confounded in confusion in their whole range. And moreover I have made them spend six months turned to the left and

11 Can change within ourselves the paths and courses of the Fate

Jesus tells Philip that the paths of the archons of the Fate were changed for the salvation of souls. The commentary sets those archons and their laws within one's own soul, where the Intimate Christ can change the courses of the Fate for the sake of Christification.

> Why the path of the Aeons was changed. And Jesus answered and said unto Philip and to all the disciples together: "I have changed their path for the salvation of all souls. Amen, amen, I say unto you if I had not changed their path, a host of souls would have been destroyed, and they would have spent a long time, if the archons of the Aeons and the archons of the Fate and of the sphere and of all their regions and all their heavens and all their Aeons had not been brought to naught; and the souls would have continued a long time here outside, and the completion of the number of perfect souls would have been delayed, which [souls] shall be counted in the Inheritance of the Height through the mysteries and shall be in the Treasury of the Light. For this cause then I have changed their path, that they might be deluded and fall into agitation and yield up the power which is in the matter of their world and which they fashion into souls, in order that those who shall be saved, might be quickly purified and raised on high, they and the whole power, and that those who shall not be saved, might be quickly destroyed.

I made them face six months towards the triangles on the left and towards the squares and towards those in their aspect and towards their octagons, just as they had formerly been. But their manner of turning, or facing, I changed to another order, and made them other six months face towards the works of their influences in the squares on the right and in their triangles and in those in their aspect and in their octagons. And I made them to be confounded in great confusion and deluded in great delusion the archons of the Aeons and all the archons of the Fate and those of the sphere; and I set them in great agitation, and thence on they were no longer able to turn towards the refuse of their matter to devour it, in order that their regions may continue to delay and they [themselves] may spend a long time as archons.*

III The destiny followeth every man until the day of his death

The later chapters of the scripture describe the destiny, named Moira, as a part fashioned with the soul that takes nothing from the world's delights and leads each man to the death the rulers of the Fate appointed. Everything appointed through the Fate comes, good or ill, and those rulers even press a man toward sin, yet whoever accomplishes the first mystery of the First Mystery is saved from what they appointed.

> And Mary answered and said: "Now, therefore, my Lord, hast thou then not brought mysteries into the world that man may not die through the death which is appointed him by the rulers of the Fate, -- be it that it is appointed one to die by the sword or die by the waters or through tortures and torturings and acts of violence which are in the law, or through any other evil death, -- hast thou then not brought mysteries into the world that man may not die with them through the rulers of the Fate, but that he may die by a sudden death, so that he endure no sufferings through such kinds of death? For they are exceedingly numerous who persecute us because of thee, and numerous those who persecute us because of thy name, in order that, if they torture us, we may speak the mystery and straightway go out of the body without having endured any sufferings at all"

Pistis Sophia Unveiled, 1983

> "Not only ye, but every man who will accomplish that first mystery of the First Mystery of the Ineffable, -- he who, therefore, shall perform that mystery and accomplish it in all its figures and all its types and all its stations, in performing it, he will not come out of the body; but after he hath accomplished that mystery in all its figures and all its types, thereafter then at every time when he shall speak the name of that mystery, he will save himself from all that which is appointed him by the rulers of the Fate. And in that hour he will come forth out of the body of the matter of the rulers, and his soul will become a great light-stream, so that it soareth on high and penetrateth all the regions of the rulers and all the regions of the Light, until it reacheth the region of its kingdom. Neither giveth it answers nor apologies in any region at all, for it is without tokens."

> "Is the babe born, the power is feeble in it, and the soul is feeble in it, and also the counterfeiting spirit is feeble in it; in a word, the three together are feeble, without any one of them sensing anything, whether good or evil, because of the load of forgetfulness which is very heavy. Moreover the body also is feeble. And the babe eateth of the delights of the world of the rulers; and the power draweth into itself from the portion of the power which is in the delights; and the soul draweth into itself from the portion of the soul which is in the delights; and the counterfeiting spirit draweth into itself from the portion of the evil which is in the delights and in its lusts. And on the other hand the body draweth into itself the matter, which senseth not, which is in the delights. The destiny on the contrary taketh nothing from the delights, because it is not mingled with them, but it departeth again in the condition in which it cometh into the world.

"Thus they give commandment to their servitors, that they may deposit it into the bodies of the antitype. And following this fashion the servitors of the rulers bring the power and the soul and the counterfeiting spirit, bring them down to the world, and pour [them] out into the world of the rulers of the midst. The rulers of the midst look after the counterfeiting spirit; arid also the destiny, whose name is Moira, leadeth the man until it hath him slain through the death appointed unto him, which the rulers of the great Fate have bound to the soul. And the servitors of the sphere bind the soul and the power and the counterfeiting spirit and the destiny. And they portion them all and make them into two portions and seek after the mart and also after the woman in the world to whom they have given signs, in order that they may send them into them. And they give one portion to the man and one portion to the woman in a victual of the world or in a breath of the air or in water or in a kind, which they drink.

'And when the servitors have given the peculiarity of the seals to the retributive rulers, they withdraw themselves to the economy of their occupations which is appointed unto them through the rulers of the great Fate. And when the number of months of the birth of the babe is completed, the babe is born. Small in it is the compound of the power, and small in it is the soul; and small in it is the counterfeiting spirit. The destiny on the contrary is large, as it is not mingled into the body for their economy, but followeth the soul and the body and the counterfeiting spirit, until the time when the soul shall come forth out of the body, on account of the type of death by which it shall slay it [the body] according to the death appointed for it by the rulers of the great Fate.

This is the occupation of the destiny, and it hath no other occupation but this. And the destiny followeth every man until the day of his death."

1 Marvellous acts arising from the Conscious Will

Three kinds of act are real in life: those of the Law of Accidents, those of Return and Recurrence, and those that arise from the Conscious Will. The first is mechanical, the second repeats the same dramas, and only the causal body of Conscious Will gives the power to originate new circumstances.

We can assert with great solemnity and without much presumption the tremendous realism evident and palpable in three specific types of action:
A) Acts based upon the Law of Accidents.

B) Acts based upon the eternal Laws of Return and Recurrence.

11 There are three types of actions

The same division returns in the psychological treatise, now with its condition attached: new acts belong only to those whose will has been freed by the death of the myself. A will bottled up in the many I's, each pulling its own way, leaves a person the victim of circumstances, and the lecture names the third kind the mark of Initiates and Masters.

There are three types of actions: 1. Those which correspond to the Law of Accidents.

2. Those which belong to the Law of Recurrence, actions always repeated in each existence.

In life, there are three types of action. First: actions that are the product of an accident, or they simply correspond to the Law of Accidents. Second: actions that are the result of karma. Third: actions produced by the conscious will. These last ones are truly the characteristic of the Initiates, of the Masters, of those who really already possess individual conscious will.

III Always a victim of circumstances

The human machine does nothing; everything happens to it, like a log on a stormy sea. Whoever does not work on himself, identifies with the I or leaves absurd states uncorrected stays at the mercy of events, and the small margin of free will, like a violin in its case, widens only by ceasing to be a machine.

Only the Being can do and the human machine, the poor intellectual animal is not capable of doing anything: everything happens to him, he is a simple mechanical toy moved by forces he is ignorant of.

Nevertheless, crude reality is different; therefore, as long as one does not change internally, whether one likes it or not, one will be a victim of circumstances.

Treatise of Revolutionary Psychology, 1975

Regarding the second type of relationship, we are always victims of circumstances. It is lamentable that we have not yet learned how to consciously originate circumstances. Many are the people who are incapable of adapting themselves to anything or anyone or to have true success in life.

The human being, falsely called man, is a psychological robot who does nothing, everything happens to him. The Being is the only one who does. The Being causes to surge what he wants because he is not a mechanical entity.

IV One becomes a master of all circumstances

Circumstances are met through inner states. One who learns to manage them, answering an insult without the violent reaction that ends in jail or the cemetery, can turn a disastrous event into a good one and originate new circumstances.

If we analyze a little more thoroughly this question of inner states, we see that they are basic, indispensable, when one does not want to be a victim of circumstances. All people are victims of the calamities of circumstances. Nobody knows how to originate new circumstances.

But if one learns to manage one's inner states, one does not become a victim of circumstances. If one learns to manage one's intimate, inner states, he can originate new circumstances. Let us see this: let us suppose that an insulter X hurts us with the word; if we react violently, we will end up in jail or in the cemetery or, at least, in a clinic.

If one learns to react wisely before this or that event, one becomes a master of all circumstances. And like I said: not only can he modify circumstances, but, in turn, he can originate new circumstances; and that is very important. V Only the Being can originate new circumstances

Epigenesis, the power to originate a new order of things, is real only for those who have built the body of Conscious Will, the causal vehicle. That body is made through the transformation of sexual energy and nourished by contemplation, meditation and prayer; the Being enters it as a lord his chariot, and one whose bodies are christified is no longer pursued by the Law of Destiny.

The one who possesses the body of Conscious Will is no longer a victim of circumstances; they are capable, very capable, of determining circumstances, they no longer determined by them.

Through him, all things happen.

But the Being is not going to enter into a chariot that does not exist; one has to create the chariot. When we receive the Being, he remains as Lord in his chariot: a well-dressed Lord with a magnificent chariot; well dressed with the Superior Existential Bodies of the Being, with the Sacred Vestments –a gorgeous carriage–; he is no longer a victim of the circumstances.

The Fifth Gospel ·Psychic Associations that Lead to Awakening ·Third Chamber – Mexico City – 1975

07

The one who gets to have those bodies must aspire a little more: he must christify them, and many works have been written about Christification. The christified bodies are extraordinary. Any christified person is, in fact, a great Lord who can say that he is "well dressed", and ceases to be a victim of circumstances, ceases to be persecuted by the Law of Destiny; he becomes a Lord, Lord in the most complete sense of the word.

A PRACTICE

When one has already created the Kesdjan –or astral– and mental bodies, one needs to enter into a superior order of development. One needs to create the "Egoaitoorassnian" faculty of the Being; that is to say, to fabricate the body of the conscious will or, in other words, the causal body. It is obvious that whoever possesses the "Egoaitoorassnian" will of the Being is no longer a victim of circumstances, he can determine circumstances at will. This vehicle can only be created through the mercury of the secret philosophy.

The Human Soul is indeed the Being; the Spiritual Soul or the Buddhi is the Being; the Atman is the Being. When I say the Hanbledzoïn of the Being, the sacred Aiësakhaldan, I am talking about a new type of blood which must be created in order to nourish the body of the sacred will or of the conscious will, the will that can determine or define the circumstances: the Egoaitoorassnian will. With what is this blood formed, this Hanbledzoïn of the Being? With the emanations of the Sacred Absolute Sun. And how would a mystic succeed in attracting those emanations of the Sacred Solar Absolute to his causal body? How could we attract the sacred Aiësakhaldan? It is simply by means of contemplation, meditation and prayer. Then, such emanations are transformed into the blood of the causal, into the Hanbledzoïn of the Being.

VI It is possible to alter our own destiny

A superior law transcends and washes away an inferior one, so destiny can be altered: good deeds laid on the scale, credits with the Lords of the Law repaid in service, healing others in order to be healed. Those who suffer would change their fortune by thinking of others; beyond this, the myself must be reduced to dust and the forces of the vertical used to change the whole of one's life.

A PRACTICE

If the Karmic pan is inclined against you, then you will be able to fight it by placing more weight on the pan of good deeds and then thou shall incline the scale in thy favor and thus kill Karma.

Zodiacal Course, 1951

Why do people suffer? Why do they blaspheme against God if human suffering is not God's fault? We ourselves are the creators of our own destiny. Sanctify thyself, beloved disciple, Sanctify thyself!

The Rosicrucian studies teach us that the semen is the astral liquid of the human being; it is life; it encloses power. Yet, it is so immense a power, that knowing how to drive it, one can achieve everything. This is why it is so important to know the Rosicrucian secrets, because one possesses a powerful weapon against the adversities of destiny.

Xochipilli must be invoked in the time between 10:00 p.m. of Friday and 2:00 a.m. of Saturday. Nothing is given free onto us and Xochipilli charges for any service that we might ask. Whosoever has funds can pay for any service, then pays and gets anything. Yet, the one who has no funds has to suffer the consequences. Perform good deeds so that you can have funds for payments. This is how Xochipilli can perform miracles and marvels for you. Good deeds are symbolized in the superior worlds by mysterious jewels and coins. So, these types of jewels and coins are the currency that you need in order to pay for the services that you might ask of Xochipilli. Xochipilli does not perform anything for free; everything has a price. Xochipilli can make the 'Wheel of retribution spin on your behalf. You may resolve all your problems with this Aztec God, but he charges for any type of service because he cannot violate the Law. You must never ask to Xochipilli to perform anything evil because he is a Master of the light. Remember that this Deity is a very pure Angel from Netzah, the world of the mind.

A PRACTICE

'When an inferior law is transcended by a superior law, the superior law washes away the inferior law. This is how one works with White Magic and one gets everything without the necessity of using the force of thought to violate the free will of people. If you are suffering, if you have some problem that you cannot resolve, this is a matter of karma; go to the aid of Xochipilli so that he can help you to resolve that problem that is the cause of your suffering. Yet, you have to pay to Xochipilli with the funds of good deeds; if you do not have funds to pay to Xochipilli, then Xochipilli cannot perform your requested service. Nonetheless, a remedy exists: ask a credit to Xochipilli, this is the way; then the outcome will be marvellous. Remember that any type of credit must be paid with good deeds. If you do not pay the credit, then they will collect it from you with intense grief. This is the Law. Perform good deeds so that you can pay your debts.

In fact, the object of the automatic repetition of events is to make us aware of our own errors; that is the law. Unfortunately we can do nothing. Everything is repeated at the correct time, just as the hands of the clock go round. To change external circumstances we have to change internally by forming Soul and Spirit, that is to say processing BEING. Only the BEING can create. Only the BEING can change all things. Whoever wants to possess BEING has to transmute his sexual, emotional, mental, passionate, motor, sentimental, etc. energies. We have to transmute the Base Metals, that is to say, our defects, into the purest Gold of the Spirit. Only in this way will we possess Soul and Spirit. The PLURALIZED EGO has to die. It is urgent that the BEING be born within us. Life in the cellular world is a tremendous repetition of events and we can only liberate ourselves from this tragic wheel of fate by dissolving the EGO on the basis of supreme Understanding and SANCTITY and by forming SOUL and SPIRIT. It is a horrible vicious circle; the Wheel of SAMSARA.

To get credits with the Lords of the Law or Archivists of Destiny is also possible, but these must be paid with good deeds, through working for humanity, or based upon supreme pain.

Runic Magic, 1969

We ourselves are the creators of our own destiny.

Zodiacal Course, 1951

It is possible to alter our own destiny because: "When an inferior law is transcended by a superior law, the superior law washes away the inferior law."

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

A PRACTICE

In altering the cause, one alters the effect. "The lion of the law is over-come with the balance." If on one tray of the scale we place our good deeds and on the other we place the bad, either both trays will weigh equally, or there will be some imbalance. If the tray of bad actions weighs more, we must place good deeds on the tray of good actions with the purpose of inclining the balance in our favour; thus we cancel Karma. Perform good acts in order to pay your debts; remember that one does not only pay with pain, one may pay by doing good.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

A PRACTICE

Do you want to be healed? Then heal others. Some of your family are in prison? Work for the liberty of others. Are you hungry? Share food with those who are worse off than you etc.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

07

A PRACTICE

Many people who suffer only recall their miseries wishing to find a remedy for them; but they do not remember the sufferings of others, it does not even enter their heads to provide for the needs of their fellowman. This egotistical state of their existence serves no end; and thus, the only thing which they achieve is to aggravate their sufferings. If such people were to think of others, to think about being of service to their fellowman, of giving food to the hungry giving a drink to the thirsty of clothing the naked, of teaching those who do not know, etc, clearly they would place good acts upon the tray of the cosmic balance in order to incline it in their favour. Thus they would alter their destiny and fortune would favour them; that is to say, all of their necessities would be met. People are however, very egotistical, and for this reason they suffer. Nobody thinks of God nor their fellowman except when they are in desperation and this is something which everyone has been able to prove for himself; such is humanity.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

A PRACTICE

Unfortunately, my dear friends, that ego which each one carries within does exactly the opposite of what we are saying here; for this reason it is urgent, unpostponable, something which ca not be put off, to reduce the "myself" to a cosmic dust cloud. Let's consider for a moment the mass of humanoids who populate the face of the Earth. They suffer the indescribable, victims of their own errors. Without the ego there would not be those errors nor would they suffer the consequences of them.

Tarot and Kabalah, 1978

A PRACTICE

Your destiny, dear reader, will never be as that of other mortals if, after having deeply studied this book, you practice the methods or systems taught here in order to awaken your consciousness.

The Secret Doctrine of Anahuac, 1974

A PRACTICE

If we put good actions on one pan of the cosmic scale and bad ones on the other and the latter weigh more, it is clear that the scale will tip against us, producing bitterness for us. But, if we put good works on the good pan of the scale, we can tip the scale in our favor; then our fortune will notably improve. If this son of yours dedicates himself to doing good, his fortune will improve.

Beyond Death

With the forces of the vertical, we can decisively influence the horizontal aspects of practical life, we can totally change our own destiny, make our life something different, something distinct, become something totally different from what we have been, from what we are, from what we have known in this bitter existence.

The Fifth Gospel · The Verticality of Existence · First Gnostic Youth Encounter – Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico – July 10. 1975

How this was made. All fifty-two books were extracted (73,105 paragraphs, 2,157,671 words) and swept on his words for it: destiny, the law of accidents, fate and fatalism, predestination, chance, luck and fortune, the wheel of destiny, the horoscope and the stars, the book, clock, archons and law of destiny, the thread of life, free will and the conscious will, and the victim of circumstances. Every family but destiny and the law of accidents was kept only where it stood beside the law, which dropped 263 uses of fatal as an adjective, the fate of heroes and minerals, fortunately, and the free will of others that the black magician violates. The paragraphs next to the strongest ones were offered too, and 18 that begin a sentence the readers had already kept were added by hand. That returned 552 candidate paragraphs in 42 books. Every candidate was read twice, by independent readers working from a written brief. The two passes agreed on whether to print 94.6% of the time and on the class 86.1%, and a third reader, who saw neither verdict, settled the 31 they did not. 151 were judged printable and 143 are printed here. The rest are recorded with the reason each was set aside.

What was set aside. 109 named destiny or fate only in passing, 43 were a false friend (fatality as the initiate's fall, destined to, fortune as wealth), 31 were Pistis Sophia text on another mystery, 29 headings, 26 recurrence and reincarnation for themselves, 24 another finished work's, 22 stories told for themselves, 15 prophecy and 12 karma's tribunal for its own sake. 51 more were judged and not printed.

Some of it he spoke. 21 passages come from the two Fifth Gospel volumes, across 11 named lectures, each cited by the name of the lecture with the place and the year where the volumes record them.

What was corrected, silently. The text layer of The Social Christ carries its quotation marks and dashes in a broken encoding; they are printed as the book printed them. The line-end breaks of the Fifth Gospel's two narrow columns are closed up against the corpus rather than by guess. No word of his is changed.

No sentence of his is cut in half. Each range was extended against the corpus until his sentence closed, a passage that turned out to be the second half of the one before it was absorbed into it, and 34 ranges run over more than one paragraph.

2 paragraphs were left out on purpose. One restates an earlier book with nothing added (the earlier is kept), and one opens The Twelve Hours of Apollonius, which belong to the initiation rather than to the clock of destiny.

79 passages also stand in a finished work, and every one is marked where it stands. Most of them are in The Law of Karma, Desire and Will, The Law of Recurrence and Return and Reincarnation. The editor ruled that shared passages print here too. An overlap is allowed wherever the teaching needs it. What is not allowed is an overlap a reader cannot see.

Checked five ways. Every reader's note was proved to sit on the passage as it is actually printed. Every printed pair was compared as sequences, and the restatements that survived were read against both sources by eye. Every ragged edge was repaired or named. Every one of the 29 passages marked a practice was proved to carry its own instruction or was read for it by eye. And no passage stands on this page in the wrong language.

A work of The Laws, the family for the laws he says govern everything, the sleeping man included: recurrence, return, karma, the pendulum, evolution and involution, the three and the seven, entropy, the two poles, and now destiny and the accidents beside it. It wears the family's sage ground and thick-and-thin border, in sap green, the painter's green pressed from buckthorn berries.
